FRANCE.

COMMUNICATION SUSPENDED.

LONDON, May 22.—All communication with Paris is suspended, the Northern Railroad having been cut by the Prussians.

BOMBARDMENT CONTINUED.

The bombardment of the fortifications of Paris, still held by the Federalists, continues.

PARIS ISOLATED.

The Times' dispatches from Versailles say Paris is completely isolated by the Prussians, and no one has arrived from there since midnight.

WITHIN THE WALLS.

Half of the Versailles army is within the walls and hold the gates Saint Cloud, Passy, Auteuil, Trocadoro Mutte, as well as the Arch of Triumph.

HEAVY FIRING.

Heavy firing is heard in the Champs Elysees

ENTERED.

Sixteen thousand Versailles troops entered Vanguard and Montrouge.

INSIDE THE CITY.

VERSAILLES, May 22.—Eighty thousand Versailles troops have entered Paris.

Sharp cannonading is heard, doubtless against the barricade near the Arc de Triomph.

PRISONERS TAKEN.

Gen. Ubrich took six hundred prisoners last night, and four hundred including those in Issy were brought to Versailles.

DOMBROWSKI ESCAPES.

VERSAILLES, May 22.—Dombrowski was reported taken prisoner by the Versailles troops and recaptured by his own men, and has since made an attempt to escape from Paris.

PARTICULARS OF THE ENTRANCE.

NEW YORK, May 22.—A special correspondent at Versailles last night telegraphed the full particulars of the manner in which the Government troops entered Paris. Captain Freogo, of the navy, went from the trenches to the ramparts at Point de Jour, and finding that the insurgents had retired, he called out three hundred sailors and took possession of the gate. Other troops followed, and before any one was aware the entry had commenced. Not a rifle was fired nor a man wounded, the whole thing being so unexpected. A white flag was hung out at Anteuil.

ANOTHER BRIGADE.

Another brigade of Versaillists has entered Porte Montrogue, and troops are pouring down on both points. It is reported that the Arc de Triomphe has been reached, and that the insurgents made but slight resistance. The guns of the ramparts have been turned on the Communists. Twenty thousand men are under Issy, and forty thousand more men are moving on the gates.

TREMENDOUS EXCITEMENT.

A special correspondent telegraphed from Paris at seven o'clock last evening, that this afternoon three squadrons of cavalry were reviewed amid tremendous excitement. Generals Henri and Fortune presented them with a stand of colors, when they shouted "We will defend them till death."

Soon after Petit Vanvres was evacuated in order to shelter in Montrouge.

EXTRAORDINARY RUMORS.

Extraordinary rumors are afloat. It is reported that the Versaillists have been repulsed.

ATTACKING THE VERSAILLIST FLANK.

Mounted orderlies have just arrived at the War Office with news. Colonel Lisboune, commanding the franc-tireurs, started immediately to attack the Versaillists flank.

BEING TRIED.

Gen. Cluseret is now being tried.

PARIS OCCUPIED.

PARIS, May 22.—Afternoon.—The Versailles army has occupied Paris.

MCMAHON'S HEADQUARTERS.

PARIS, May 22.—The headquarters of Marshal McMahon are established in the new opera house. The headquarters of General Issy whose forces entered the city from the south are in the Ecole militaire which fronts on the Champs De Mars.

EXPLOSION.

There was a great explosion this afternoon near the Esplanade Des Invalides.

THE CITY IN COMMOTION.

The city is in tremendous commotion. From the windows in the west front of the Tuilleries the scene of conflict can be distinctly seen.

COMMUNE TROOPS.

An immense body of Commune troops have concentrated around the Hotel De Ville have retreated from the outskirts. The capture of the Commune is imminent.

[Special to N. Y. World.]

ALL IS OVER.

PARIS, May 22.—All is over. Ten thousand Versaillists have entered, and more are now coming. They marched in all night, coming through six gates, and met with but slight resistance. The barricades were not defended. No mines were exploded. The Versaillists are now marching on the Hotel de Ville, where the Communists will make their last stand. The Versaillists behaved splendidly, committing no excesses.

THICK AND FAST.

VERSAILLES, May 22.—Reports from Paris come in thick and fast. The Palais de Industrie is surrounded by the government troops, and the Communists inside have been called on for unconditional surrender. A parley is now in progress.

BLOODY FIGHT.

A bloody fight occurred in the Rue St. Honore. The Versaillists charged down the street with fury and were fearfully cut up by the concealed fire from the windows of the Conciergeries. MacMahon planted eleven pieces of cannon on the city side of the Arc de Triumphe, amidst the debris of the captured barricade, and completely swept the champs Elysses. The Communists are concentrated along the Rue Dioоli, Rue St. Antoiny, around the Hotel De Ville and place Bastille.

SHOT.

General Lenone was shot this morning in the east square of the Tuilleries, by court martial on the charge of treason to the Commune.

CULMINATING.

The commotion in the city is culminating.

A report has been received here that the barricade under the Arc de Triomphe has been carried by assault by the forty-first. The sixty-third and eighty-fourth regiments have taken a gallant and conspicuous part in the actions and Col. Rindual and Le Favre are said to have been mortally wounded. A regiment of Chasseurs in dashing up the Boulevard L'Imperatrice now called Boulevard Brune were met with a murderous volley of rifle shot from an ambuscaded party of Communists. The latter precipitately retreated when an additional force of Versaillists came immediately in support of the regiment attacked in front.

SPEECH BY THIERS.

VERSAILLES, May 22.—In the Assembly to-day, Thiers made a congratulatory speech on the success of the Government arms. He said he had not expected to effect an entrance into Paris for three or four more days, and gave in detail an account of the move of Sunday, which terminated so victoriously. He announced that the Government was determined to visit with rigorous punishment the most criminal of the insurgents.

REBUILDING.

Bills were introduced to restore the Chapel of Expiation and the Column of the Place Vendome, the latter to be surmounted by a statue of France.

THANKS.

A vote of thanks to Thiers and the army were adopted by acclamation.

POOR PARIS.

LONDON, May 22.—A dispatch dated "Outside Paris, Monday evening, May 22d," says: The isolation of the city continues. Fires are raging inside. A dense smoke overhangs Montmartre. Frequent explosions are heard. The sound of cannon and musketry firing is continuous. It is said that the Prussians are occupying Vincennes. The Prussian outposts have received strict orders to drive back all insurgents attempting to pass their line. A wounded Communist General, seeking to escape from Paris has been turned back by the Germans. Their advanced corps has been doubled. The head quarters of the Prince of Saxony will shortly be removed from Margeniery to Compiegne. The Guards will return to Germany by the end of the present week.

COMMUNISTS RALLY.

VERSAILLES, May 22.—The Commune troops rallied at Montmaitre, and the Hotel de Ville, the approaches to which places were defended by barricades. Much serious fighting took place, and resulted in the Versailles troops occupying three-fourths of the city.

CANNONADING.

A conflagration is raging near Invalides, and the insurgent battery on Montmaitre is cannonading the city.

PRISONERS TAKEN.

L'Admirault telegraphs that everything is satisfactory, and although fighting may continue several hours, the city is absolutely won. Many Commune leaders were taken and there were some awful massacres.

ENGLAND.

PATERNAL SOLICITATIONS.

LONDON, May 12.—The Duke of Braglie, the French ambassador to England, has gone to Versailles, his son being wounded in a recent engagement.

ROCHEFORT AT BRUSSELS.

Rochefort has, it appears, engaged apartments at Brussels, where he was expected Saturday last. He had a narrow escape from lynching at Versailles.

COLLISION.

The steamship Paraguay, from London for New York, has returned to port, having been damaged in a collision with the screw steamer Webb. The latter foundered immediately and thirteen lives were lost.

NEW YACHT.

Mr. Ashburg's new yacht Livonia, has had a very successful trial.

ARRIVED.

The steamship Abyssinia, from New York, touched Queestown, and the Moravean, from Queenstown, touched Maville.

HOUSE OF LORDS.

LONDON, May 22.—In the House of Lords to-night Marquis Salisbury asked if in view of the evident dislike of the Canadians to the treaty of Washington, the Government intended to press its ratification before the 12th of June. Earl Louderdale quoted the report by Atlantic cable of Senator Sumner's speech denouncing the treaty save as a peace measure. The noble Lord ridiculed the idea of an apology from England and declared she never made any.

Earl Granville, Foreign Secretary, declined to answer Earl Louderdale. It was not convenient to discuss the terms of the treaty. He personally sympathized as little with Sumner as with Lord Louderdale. The treaty was not a treaty until it was ratified. It had been published in the United States, for the American Senate had commenced an investigation into the surreptitious means in which it had been obtained for publication. Hence it should be submitted to Parliament. It was impossible to anticipate the decision of the Senate. Lord Granville declined to pledge the Government to a refusal to ratify the treaty before June 12th, simply because notice had been given of an intention to raise a discussion upon it in Parliament.

Earl Carnavon explained that Marquis Salisbury only desired an opportunity to discuss the treaty before ratifications were exchanged. It was understood moreover that the Canadian Parliament was to be consulted.

Earl Russell insisted on the demand that an opportunity be given for discussion as a parliamentary prerogative.

Earl Grey said diplomacy was impossible if it had to be submitted to Parliament before satisfaction. It was a prerogative of the Crown to conclude treaties on its own notion.

Lord Cairns concurred in what Earl Grey said.

Earl Granville stated that an official copy of the treaty was only received by the Government yesterday. It was now printing and would be submitted on Tuesday. The other official documents would be withheld pending debate in the Senate of the United States on ratification.

After passing the Consolidated Fund bill and Customs Income Tax bill, the House adjourned.

KANSAS.

United States Court.

TOPEKA, May 22.—The United States Circuit Court met this afternoon, Associate Justice Miller and Judge Dillon presiding. The civil cases against John Speer, late United States Collector, were first called. The District Attorney offered an order from the Commissioner of Internal Revenue, accepting a proposition from Mr. Speer for a compromise, and Speer appeared in court and paid over the money, eleven thousand dollars, and the cases were dismissed. All of the criminal cases against Mr. Speer and his deputies were then nolle prosequied, and the case of C. C. Hutchinson, indicted for embezzlement as agent of the Ottawa Indians was also nollied. There are one hundred and forty cases on the docket, and a very large attendance of lawyers from all parts of the State.

RAILROAD MATTERS.

CHETOPA, May 22.—Vice-President Denison, ex-Mayor Opdyke of New York, Director Skiddy and other directors and stockholders of the Missouri, Kansas & Texas Railroad, and prominent railroad men of other roads have just returned from the end of the track, twenty-five miles from Fort Gibson, in a train of Pullman palace cars. They found the track laying progressing at the rate of a mile a day. The cars will ran to Fort Gibson by July 1st. The bridge over the Arkansas river will be done by September 1st. Manager Stevens is directed to complete the grading, bridging and masonry to the south side of the Canadian river by the 1st of October next and to have the cars running to that part by November 1st. The entire party are united in the opinion that it is the smoothest and best new road over which they ever traveled. At Big Cabin cattle yards ample facilities are provided for cattle and all kinds of freight. The next station will be established at Pavor's Creek, twenty-five miles below Big Cabin, at which point the road will be open for business within the next two weeks. The party started from Sedalia on this line, and return via Junction City, thus traversing the entire line of completed road of four hundred and fifty miles, all of which has been completed within the last two years. The contract for the transportation of all United States military supplies for Texas and the Indian Territory has been awarded to the company. Already vast herds of cattle and large quantities of cotton are en route to the southern terminus. No company ever opened with indications more flattering for a heavy freight and passenger traffic. On arrival at Holden the party will go west to Paola on the line progressing through Ottawa and Bearing, along at or near Emperio. The plans of the company are most comprehensive, and when the road is completed, Atchison, Leavenworth, Lawrence, Topeka and Fort Scott will be connected by its main line through the Indian Territory to the Gulf. The Directors are determined that the entire line to Red River shall be open by January 1st, 1872.

BALTIMORE.

Extensive Fire and Loss of Life.

BALTIMORE, May 22.—A fire occurred this morning in a large block of five story warehouses on Sharp street. Losses were as follows: No. 26 occupied by Wm. H. Brown & Brother, importers and druggists' supplies; stock and building entirely destroyed. No. 23 Stillman, Henrick's & Co., importers of notions and fancy goods; building partly burned and stock ruined by water. No. 21, Turnbull, Sweet & Co., dry goods importers and commission merchants; stock badly damaged by water. No. 27, dwelling damaged by fire and water and walls partly down. No estimate of the loss has yet been made.

During the fire Engine No. 1 exploded, killing J. Harry Weaver, member of the first branch of City Council from the Nineteenth ward. Weaver had just returned from Philadelphia and was passing from the depot to his home when thus suddenly killed. The following are the losses and insurance: Brown & Bro., loss on building $50,000, insurance $20,000; amount of their stock about equal to insurance, which is $95,000, all in home companies. Stillman, Henricks & Co., building damaged $25,000, fully insured in home companies; stock estimated at $115,000, on which the loss is about $60,000, insured in Eastern companies.

DEAD.

William H. Clarke, news editor of the Baltimore Sun for the past twenty years, died at his residence in this city yesterday afternoon at the age of fifty-two years.

SCRANTON.

Resumption.

NEW YORK, May 22.—A special dispatch from Scranton last evening, says that all the mines worked by those large corporations will be in full operation this week. The Delaware and Hudson men voted yesterday for resumption.

HELD FOR TRIAL.

Kearns, the man who shot Davis and Jones had a hearing yesterday at Wilkesbarre, and was held in $10,000 bail for trial at the October Court. The trial will be a contest between the corporations and the Workingmen's Benevolent Association.

AT BRIGG'S SHAFT.

The laborers who were working at Brigg's shaft concluded an arrangement with the company to give back their places to the miners who were supplanted, consequently there was no work on Saturday at that mine. As neither of the corporations had any disposition to take any unfair advantage of the members of the W. B. A. it is thoroughly understood that the leaders will not be discharged or otherwise molested. The rancor of the last few days is wearing away, but both parties will retain a vivid remembrance of the great coal struggle of 1871.

AT WORK.

The whirr of machinery is heard this morning for the first time for many months in all the breakers at the shafts of the great coal companies in this valley. Everything is bustling, active and cheerful throughout the community, and the general disposition is to believe that we have at least five years constant work before us without interruption from strikes, and that all dissensions and sufferings are to be buried in peace and plenty.

PHILADELPHIA.

Presbyterian Synod.

PHILADELPHIA, May 22.—In the Presbyterian Reformed Synod, to-day, among the resolutions adopted was the following: That the present condition of France in general, as desolated by the war, and the city of Paris in particular, as now drenched by the blood of her own citizens, is a righteous retribution for the martyrdom of Saint Bartholomew's day, and a tangible fulfillment of the divine promise to the Church: "That no weapon that is formed against thee shall prosper."

A committee was appointed to prepare a programme of exercises to commemorate the Tri Centennary in the year 1872. A Committee was appointed to report in reference to any church property endangered by the secession of a portion of a church. Resolutions of censure against the Pittsburgh Presbytery and sustaining the protest of the minority of that Presbytery were adopted. Nominations were made and approved for members of the various boards of Missions, trustees of the Theological Seminaries and delegates to assemblies.

BOSTON.

Butler on the Treaty.

BOSTON, May 22.—General Butler appeared before the Legislative committee on federal relations to-day and read a letter making a 24 page pamphlet which he had addressed to his son-in-law Senator Ames of Mississippi, in which he reviews and generally condemns the treaty of Washington.

It is stated that the American board of commissioners of foreign missions have been appointed residuary legatee of the estate of the late John C. Brooks, Portland, and will realize therefrom some $7,000 dollars, and by the terms of the will after the decease of Mrs. Brooks the board will receive a further sum of $5,000 dollars income which she is to receive during her lifetime.

The funeral of E. H. Norton, brother of Senator Norton, took place yesterday and was attended by many political organizations.

PRIZE FIGHT.

The World's Erie special says there was great excitement there yesterday. A prize fight came off on the beach near the city, between Barney McCulloch and Jack Flynn, Arthur Conway acting referee. The police did not interfere, and twenty-four rounds were fought, lasting one hour and forty minutes, when McCulloch threw up the sponge, both being badly bruised up. The affair originated in a dispute about a woman, which both wanted. After three or four squabbles, which were interrupted by the police, they decided to fight it out according to the rules of the ring, and let the best man have her.

ARRESTED FOR MURDER.

One John Mahoney was arrested yesterday in Jersey City on a supposition of having murdered and horribly mutilated his brother three weeks ago. The difficulty is supposed to have grown out of the murdered man's intention to compete with his brother in business.

ANOTHER TRAGEDY.

Another car hook tragedy is reported. This time the car driver used that instrument upon the driver of a cart. The altercation took place Saturday afternoon in Harlem, and was caused by a collision between the cart and car.

ZEIGENMEYER.

Alfred Zeigenmeyer, a young German arrested in Europe and brought to this city by Captain Dixon and Sergeant Rehen, of the Chicago police, charged with having murdered and robbed his friend and companion, Wm. Gumbleton, last evening started for Chicago in company with his captors.

PERSONAL NEWS.

Sir John MacDonald, Lady MacDonald, Lieut Col. Bernard, of Canada; Charles Drinkwater and May Woodhall, Secretary of Legation, will sail with Gen. Schenck on Wednesday. Sir Stafford Northcote and Earl De Grey are expected to arrive to-day and will sail for Europe on Wednesday in the steamer Cuba. Among the passengers who sailed in the City of Paris for Liverpool on Saturday, were Hon. J. W. Carpenter, of Cambridge City, E. A. Claypool, of Connersville, and R. S. Knobenberg, of Richmond, Indiana.

The jury has been completed in the Foster-Putnam murder case. The prosecution has opened. The name of the twelfth juror is James Daniel Burkner, of Pearl street.

CHICAGO.

General Assembly.

CHICAGO, May 22.—At the afternoon session of the General Assembly, Rev. Dr. Hall of New York, continued the discussion of the report on Church Erection. He urged its views with warmth and illustrated the importance of reducing them quickly as could be to practice. He thought the church ought to double or treble its contributions, and that a quarter of a million dollars employed in aiding to provide houses of worship would be excellent, even as a pecuniary investment. The report with recommendations was adopted without a dissenting voice. Strong feeling was indicated in favor of stimulating liberality of the church in direction of edifices. Ex-Governor Pollock, read the report of the standing committee on Missions for freedmen.

THE BAPTISTS.

The annual meeting of the American Baptist Historical Society was held in the lower Farwell Hall this forenoon, about twenty members being present. Resolutions were passed requesting the publication by the Society of papers of the Rev. Dr. Bailey, on the progress of the Baptist denomination, and Mr. Evarart's, Jr., on the Ana-Baptists. A resolution commending the Society to procure a fire-proof building for the safe keeping of its collections and records was passed. A general discussion occurred on the progress and future prospects of the Society, after which it adjourned sine die.

The American Baptist Home Mission Society devoted the first morning hour to devotional exercises. Rev. Dr. Cary offered the following resolutions, which were adopted by a large majority after considerable discussion, with reference to that wide field for work, the American Home Mission Society demands the hearty and united cooperation of the Baptists in every part of the country. That in order to the most efficient promotion of the work assigned us former divisions and prejudices engendered by a variety of causes should no longer be allowed to divide our councils nor cripple our energies. That we greet our Southern brethren now with us participating in our celebrations, with Christian love, and request them to unite with us in allaying any prejudices that may exist North or South. That we deem it unwise and productive only of evil to longer agitate in our religious anniversaries, North or South, subjects which have long divided us, while the great cause of our division has ceased to exist, and the revolution grew out of acrimonious debates on slavery in yesterday's afternoon session.

Rev. Mr. Haskell, of Ann Arbor, offered the following resolutions, which were adopted after a stirring address by the mover; that in establishing and maintaining institutions and schools for freed people the American Baptist Home Mission Society makes no recognition of policy in educating them separately from other races. The society only recognizes the present obstructions in the way of common employment of the same educational facilities, declaring the fact that our separate schools are temporary and provisional, and affirming the expectations that the fundamental principles of our religion and government will, ere long, triumph over present obstructions and bring teachers and pupils to indiscriminate enjoyment of the same free schools and Christian seminaries.

The report on the church edifice fund was considered. Rev. Paivell and Rev. Dr. Everts made stirring addresses and the following plan was submitted:

WHEREAS, The Board of the Baptist General Association of Illinois and the Board of the American Baptist home mission society have adopted the following plan for raising a church edifice fund of one hundred thousand dollars for Illinois viz:

First, No subscription shall be for a less sum than one hundred dollars.

Second, All subscriptions or such parts thereof as may not be paid at the time of subscribing shall be put into notes bearing interest payable annually at the rate of seven per cent. and shall be made payable in any number of equal annual payments not to exceed five unless otherwise specified at the time of subscribing the first which shall be due not more than one year from date.

Third—All money raised on this plan shall be paid into the Church Edifice fund of the American Baptist Home Mission Society to be loaned on recommendation of the Board of the Baptist General Association of Illinois to Baptist churches in Illinois so long as required by said Board, on the same terms on which money is loaned from said Church Edifice fund, and when not so required it be used elsewhere under the directions of the Board of the American Baptist Home Mission Society.

Fourth, All interest arising from this fund prior to January 1, 1882, after paying the expense connected with the management of said fund, may be used to sustain the general missionary work in Illinois if judged necessary by the Board of the Baptist General Association of Illinois, otherwise it shall be added annually to this Church Edifice Fund.

Fifth, The American Baptist Home Mission Society agrees to appropriate in addition to our ordinary collections throughout the year, from April 1, 1871, to April 1, 1872, as much money to our general missionary work in Illinois as may be necessary to meet any deficit in our general contributions. Such appropriations, however, shall be pro rata and shall not exceed the sum of five thousand dollars.

Sixth, There shall be appointed by the Board of the Baptist General Association of Illinois at its first meeting in each year a Church Edifice Committee of five, including the Superintendent of Missions, which Committee shall be specially charged with the duty of investigating all applications for loans and recommending to this Board the amount to be loaned on each application appropriated and also the time for which said loan shall be granted, which shall in no case exceed the time fixed by the American Baptist Home Mission Society

Now therefore we subscribers in consideration of our promises, do hereby agree to and with the American Baptist Home Mission Society and with each other to pay to the Treasurer of said Society for the time being to be appropriated to the objects of said church edifice fund as above agreed and specified, the sums set opposite our names respectively, the same to be paid in five equal installments, unless otherwise specified by us in writing at the time of our several subscriptions, in which case we agree to pay the same as thus specified together, with interest, payable annually at the rate of seven per cent. on such parts of our several subscriptions as remain unpaid.

The plan was read by the Rev. Mr. Hobart, who made a speech in its support and started the subscription with a pledge of three hundred dollars. This speech and donation were followed by others until the amount subscribed reached an aggregate of over one thousand dollars.

LOUISVILLE.

Alabama Presbyterians.

LOUISVILLE, May 22.—A Courier-Journal special from Huntsville, Alabama, says that in the Presbyterian General Assembly reports of the Committees on Theological Seminaries and Foreign Missions were adopted. The report of the Committee on Sustentation was presented, but no vote taken on it. Rev. Dr. Parris and Mr. E. Bredell, delegates from the Synod of Missouri, were heard and responded to by the Moderator, who proposed, in view of the difficulties they felt to be in the way of union with us, that their Synod have a meeting at St. Louis, and that the whole Assembly come to be absorbed by them. A proposition to repeal the rule referring to the examination of every minister as he removes from one presbytery to another, was voted down after an interesting discussion. Adjournment will probably occur on Thursday or Friday.

CANADA.

A Town Burned.

BRADFORD, Ont., May 22.—A fire which commenced this morning in Edwardson's bakery, has been raging all day. The entire business part of the town is burnt and not one store is left. The Town Hall is burned, also one hundred houses. Losses, which are very heavy, cannot at present be estimated. There was a partial insurance on the buildings and stock, but the amount is not known.

HARRISBURG.

State Legislature.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

The Sinking Fund.

EXTRA PAY.

The Final Adjournment.

AN AMUSING HOUSE SESSION.

[Special Dispatch to Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, May 22, 1871.

SENATE.

The Senate met at 7½ o'clock this evening.

Prayer by the Chaplain.

Mr. BUCKALEW moved to suspend orders so as to take up bills on call. Lost.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION.

Mr. BUCKALEW called up the bill providing for calling a Constitutional Convention, and moved to strike out all after the enacting clause and insert a new bill, which provides for submitting the question of calling a Convention to the people at the next October election.

Mr. BUCKALEW said he had been willing to have the vote on the Convention taken directly, but was willing to accept the opinions of others, especially as he wanted to make all possible progress in the matter.

The substitute he proposed provides for voting on the question in October and then the Legislature at its next session if the vote was affirmative could fix a day for that Convention. He believed that a large majority of the people would approve of it. He then called attention to the small amount of legislation transacted in the Ohio and Illinois Legislatures and he thought with proper amendments in the Constitution we could get along in this State with one or two hundred laws at each session instead of having nearly two thousand as now.

Mr. WHITE said the sentiments of himself and of his party on this question were well drawn, but he had hoped some practical bill would have been passed. Early in the session a bill had passed the House, and later bills were had in the Senate. The bill reported from the Committee on Constitutional Reform was a good one, and provided among other things for the election of thirty-two delegates at large, and the State was so districted as to make the Convention even politically, but the bill substituted was really giving stone where bread was asked for. What was needed was an early convention.

The amendment was passed by a vote of 15 to 130.

Mr. WHITE then said he was opposed to the bill as substituted, but as the majority were determined to pass it, he would vote for it.

The bill then passed by an unanimous vote.

SINKING FUND.

Mr. PETRIKEN called up the House bill, requiring the Commissioners of the sinking fund, to receive proposals as depositaries of the State funds. This is the bill generally known as White's bill.

Mr. RUTAN said this was virtually the same bill as he had introduced early in the session, and was the same as had been passed last winter in the House and failed in the Senate, and was the same as had been negatived by the Finance Committee.

Mr. BILLINGFELT said the bill was a great improvement on last year's because it requires banks to give security and relieves the Treasurer and his securities of all liabilities in case of loss, but it was too important to pass hastily.

Mr. DAVIS moved the bill lie over on the third reading, as he desired to amend.

Mr. RUTAN moved to suspend the rules and pass the bill.

The speaker said that it was important that the bill should lie over, as the clerk's desk had sometime within forty-eight hours been rifled of the original bill.

The bill was then laid over.

EXTRA PAY.

On motion of Mr. DAVIS, the vote on the resolution directing the speaker to withold his signature to the bill giving members extra pay was reconsidered and the consideration of the resolution postponed.

Adjourned till to-morrow morning.

HOUSE.

The House met at 8 P. M.

Prayer by the Chaplain.

The clerk of the Senate appeared at a quarter to eight with his usual message of the Senate proceedings but brought no information of action of the Senate on Saturday in reference to

FINAL ADJOURNMENT.

The disposition of the Republicans was to kill time and they insisted upon having the journal of Friday read in full including several Messages from the Governor embraced therein. The object was to get the Senate action of Saturday in reference to final adjournment and act upon it promptly before other orders could intervene.

The Democratic members several times moved to dispense with reading the journal desiring to make statements but the reading was sternuously insisted on and carried out.

Considerable amusement was created by the slow deliberate manner in which the Clerks read the minutes. It was nine o'clock when the reading of the journal was finished and Mr. STRANG stated that the Senate had adjourned and he thought a Conference Committee on the appropriation bill should have a chance to meet, whereupon

Mr. ELLIOTT moved this House adjourn.

Mr. STEELE, Democrat, desired to make a statement, but the motion to adjourn not being withdrawn, it was carried by a strict party vote, the Republicans voting aye, and the Democrats no.

The House was then ready to adjourn till to-morrow morning, when the Clerk of the Senate was announced, and the Speaker withheld his decision of the vote so hear the Clerk's message, which was only in reference to some ordinary bill, and was greeted with storms of laughter.

GREAT EXCITEMENT

A Senate Bill Stolen.

HOUSE AND SENATE AT WAR.

[Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Gazette.]

HARRISBURG, May 22, 1871.

During the whole afternoon members of both Houses of the Legislature assembled in and around the Capitol, discussing the probable action of the Republican and Democratic parties in the evening.

At seven o'clock the respective caucuses assembled. It had been evident during the day that one of the movements of the Democrats would be to pass a House bill which required the Republican State Treasurer to deposit all State funds in the banks offering the highest premiums. The bill was suddenly discovered to have been stolen, after the Senate had assembled and passed it to a third reading.

The tactics which were resolved upon in the Democratic caucus have been kept scrupulously private, but the Senate is evidently disposed to make bold and aggressive warfare in support of its demands for the revised registry law.

The Republican House caucus held a prolonged session, and did not reach the chamber of the House until after the usual hour of meeting. They determined in substance absolutely to refuse the transaction of all business until the Senate forwarded them the resolution providing for final adjournment. In accordance with this policy nothing was done in the House but the reading of the journal.

The Clerk of the Senate twice presented himself. On each occasion the House members anxiously awaited the announcement of Senate action upon final adjournment resolution and in both cases were disappointed. The future movements of both Senate and House are uncertain as well as the day of final adjournment.

TREATY OF WASHINGTON.

Post Office Matters.

THE WEATHER.

Mr. Colfax Taken Sick.

CONFIRMATIONS AND NOMINATIONS.

WASHINGTON, May 22, 1871.

THE TREATY.

It is generally thought the treaty will be ratified to day or to-morrow. If so, Mr. Schenck will take the officially ratified copy with him. The White House will be closed, and the President will leave for Long Branch on the 31st inst. The cottage is now being put in order.

THE INDIANS.

A council was held to-day between the Indian delegation now here and the Secretary of the Interior and Commissioner Parker on behalf of the Government. The chiefs had abandoned their savage clothes and appeared in dark vests, coats and pantaloons. Commissioner Parker began the talk. He called the attention of the Indians to the fact that they were promised annuities for only ten years, four of which have passed, and in the time yet remaining they should try and take care of themselves as farmers. He advised them to do so, as they could live by hunting but a few years longer. When the Indians go home, said the Commissioner, it will please the President if they would stop on the way in the Indian Territory and attend a general council of Indians to be held there in Creek county, the object of which is simply and solely for the good of themselves and to establish peace and harmony and one general government among all the tribes of that country. At the conclusion of his remarks Little Raven said his people were anxious to get together by themselves, and he was anxious to have a dividing line between white and Indian blood.

A long time ago a treaty of peace was made (Little Raven probably referred to Col. Mitchell's treaty in '51) and soon afterward rich ores were discovered west of them. This brought the white man in the country. The railroads came around them and drove the Indians away from their homes. They do not know where this is to end. The whites are approaching them constantly, and the Indians do not know what country they own. He said peace existed before soldiers were stationed among them, and asked that they be withdrawn. The Wichitas Chief thought nearly all the lands which had been given to other Indians was the property of the Wichitas. This was his principal complaint, and what he particularly desired was pay for it.

"Here I am," said Buffalo Goad, "with white man's coat and pantaloons, but there are no greenbacks in my pocket, and now I hope the Government will give me some to carry around so as to show something for lands that have been taken."

Secretary Delano made a short speech to the delegation advising the Indians to learn habits of civilization as soon as possible, and form a government of their own, and they would be furnished with clothes and agricultural implements, and schools and churches would be established among them.

Little Raven was anxious to know if he would be authorized in getting all his people in the North to the South—that was one thing about which he was anxious and upon that the Commissioner said he would let him know to-morrow. The Indians have been very generally impressed with what they have seen in the country of civilization. Some of them are disposed to repel the idea that the Capitol buildings and paintings in the rotunda are work of man. The Cheyennes endeavor to be complacent under all circumstances and permit no expressions of wonder at the sights they experience to escape them.

COLFAX TAKEN SICK.

During the proceedings to-day near the close of the session Vice President Colfax, feeling sick, requested Senator Pomeroy to occupy his place. Directly the latter gentleman reached the chair Mr. Colfax left the platform and on his way out suddenly becoming dizzy, would have fallen heavily to the floor but for the efforts of Mr. Flagg, the principal legislative clerk, who was conducting him from the chamber. Major McDonald, Chief clerk, and Captain Bassett, the door-keeper, immediatly repaired to the scene as did the Senators in that vicinity. The Vice-President was conveyed to his room. The occurrence caused a temporary cessation of business which was resumed as soon as it was ascertained the sickness was not believed to be of an alarming character. The remainder of the session was consumed in desultory conversation as to fixing some time for taking a vote on ratification of the treaty. No conclusion was reached on that question. Several Senators said this evening the Senate will probably vote on ratification on Wednesday or Thursday, while another one remarked that an effort will be made to-morrow to complete the business even if a night session be necessary for that purpose. When Vice President Colfax was carried to his room he was laid upon a sofa and Doctors Bliss and McCoy promptly summoned. They immediately applied proper remedies when the patient seemed to be much relieved. After adjournment of the Senate numerous Senators of both parties visited Mr. Colfax. His sickness is probably caused by the close atmosphere in the Senate Chamber as all the doors are closed during Executive Session. The Vice President remains at his room in the Capitol and was to-night conversing with friends.

THE WEATHER.

Synopsis for the past twenty-four hours. The barometer has fallen at the Pacific and Rocky Mountain stations. The rainy and threatening weather which prevailled Sunday evening from Arkansas to Lake Erie has very generally cleared away. Cloudiness now prevails over the Southern and Western States. The barometer has fallen in the latter region and is sensibly stationary. It has risen on the upper lakes, with a falling temperature and fresh northerly winds.

Probabilities.—Partially cloudy and clear weather are probable for Tuesday in the interior. No serious disturbance is indicated for the Southern and Lake Coasts. Rising barometer and clearing weather is probable for the Eastern States.

THE TREATY.

The Senate was engaged for five hours to-day on the treaty.

Mr. Davis, of Kentucky, and Thurman, of Ohio, made speeches. Though not opposing the treaty, they severally indicated amendments which they desired to be made. It is said the latter gentleman expressed doubt as to the wisdom of incorporating in new rules or in the laws of nations prohibitions against neutrals building or equipping vessels for belligerents, believing that this subject should be left to the operation of municipal law. Thus far but one Senator has mentioned how he will vote on the treaty, and this will be in opposition to it.

PAYING INTEREST.

Secretary Boutwell has given some attention to the question of paying the interest on money advanced for war purposes by the several States. The subject has already been discussed in Congress. The amount of this interest would, it is calculated, be about fifty per cent. of the whole claim. Some States—as for instance Indiana and Minnesota—sold their bonds at a large discount in order to secure the needed funds for equipping and sending forward troops. This discount is made claim against the general government. If this is abandoned, however, the officials believe that the claims for the interest may yet be allowed by Congress.

WHITE AND RAMSDELL.

The act of 1857 provides that when any witness shall refuse to answer questions put by any branch of Congress, the fact shall be reported to the Senate or House, when it shall be the duty of the presiding officer to certify the same to the District Attorney, in order that the matter may be brought before the Grand Jury. The Vice President on Saturday followed this course with regard to White and Ramsdell.

POSTOFFICE MATTERS.

The Postoffice Department is congratulating itself on the increased prospects of making the postal service self-sustaining. It is found that the revenue thereof for the present fiscal year is $1,006,000 more than last year.

NOMINATIONS.

The President to-day sent the following nominations to the Senate: Postmasters—A. P. Sullivan, Santa Fe, New Mexico; S. W. Chubbuck, Gold Hill, Nevada; Mark Tilton, Pension Agent, Mattison, Indiana.

APPOINTED.

Robert G. Corwin has been appointed Supervisor of Internal Revenue for the southern district of Ohio, Supervisor Jos. W. Dwyer retaining the Supervisorship of the northern section of the State.

CONFIRMATION.

The Senate has confirmed the nomination of Nicholas Fisk, of New York, to be appointed as Secretary of Legation at Berlin.

NEW BRIGHTON.

Colonel Stanton Serenaded.

[Special Dispatch to Pittsburgh Gazette.]

NEW BRIGHTON, PA., May 22.—Colonel Stanton, the Republican nominee for Auditor General was serenaded at his residence this evening by a large assembly of his fellow-citizens, headed by the New Brighton cornet band. In reply to the address of welcome, the Colonel made an appropriate and eloquent address, thanking his friends for their kind appreciation of the honor conferred upon him. The campaign has opened here with enthusiasm, and Col. Stanton's friends promise one thousand majority to the ticket this fall in Beaver county.

The "Republican" Levied on.

ST. LOUIS.

U. S. SENATE.

EXTRA SESSION.

WASHINGTON, May 22, 1871.

Mr. SUMNER rising to a personal explanation, called attention to what purported to be a report of a speech made by him last Friday in Executive Session published in the New York Herald of Saturday.

Mr. TRUMBULL, interrupting, remarked, and so of all the reports of the Executive Sessions of several days past, they were all inventions.

Mr. SUMNER, resuming, said: All the reports which he had seen of what were called his speeches, were mere inventions. He hoped that wherever these reports had gone this contradiction would follow. Fisher Ames once said that a lie would travel from Maine to Georgia while the truth was putting on his boots.

Mr. WILSON offered a resolution, which lies over, that the Sergeant at Arms be directed to discharge Messrs. White and H. J. Ramsdell immediately after the final adjournment of the special session.

Mr. EDMUNDS remarked that as the Senator from Massachusetts had seen proper to make a personal explanation, he wished to say, as a report appeared a day or two ago that he had made a speech expressing great hostility to the press, that he had made no such speech whatever on the subject, or on anything else. The subject of the press was not alluded to in Executive Session by any Senator.

Mr. SUMNER offered a resolution, which lies over, that White and Ramsdell, who are now in close custody of the sergeant at arms, be discharged from custody forthwith.

Mr. POMEROY offered a resolution, which was adopted, that the clerks of the several standing committees be paid from the first to the thirty-first of May.

Mr. TRUMBULL, from the Committee on the Judiciary, to whom was referred the resolution to enquire whether Senators were entitled to mileage for the present session, made report thereon to the effect that Senators are not under law entitled to mileage.

On motion of Mr. CAMERON the Senate went into executive session on the treaty.

NEW ORLEANS.

The Archbishop.

NEW ORLEANS.—Archbishop Perche arrived yesterday and received a formal demonstration of welcome upon his return from Rome. A procession of military and civil societies and an immense concourse of people took part in the ceremonies.

THE Commercio, an Italian journal contains the following curious story relative to an individual styling himself Francis II., who arrived a few days ago at Barri. His person, his manners, his suite, gave him a striking resemblance to the ex-King of the Two Sicilies, of happy memory. He received official and confidential visits from priests, monks, women, and numerous supporters of his cause. He promised, flattered and granted nominal pensions, and predicted his elevation very shortly to the throne of Naples. His pretensions reached to such a degree that on the third day he issued forty invitations to a grand banquet, at which the most extravagant toasts were drank and vivas shouted for the shortly-to-be-reinstated King and all belonging to him. The jubilation was at its height when it was suddenly interrupted by the unexpected entrance of a body of carbineers and guards, who, in the name of the law, invited the King, his suite, and his guests to accompany them to the castle, where they would be better able to carry on the farce. There being no use in resisting, the "King" and his company submitted with the best possible grace, and were suddenly placed in safe keeping. The soi-disant King is a native of Barietta. The police are said to have seized several documents compromising several influential persons in Rome.

WHAT SHALL WE DRINK?—Pending the agitation of the question of water supply, we understadd that a number of our best citizens have resolved that until they can be assured of a supply of that indispensible fluid, pure and limped, they will drink nothing but Pier. Dannals & Co.'s cream ale.

REPUBLICAN STATE TICKET.

AUDITOR GENERAL.
DAVID STANTON, of Beaver Co.
SURVEYOR GENERAL.
ROBT. B. BEATH, of Schuylkill Co.

GOLD closed in New York yesterday at 111⅛@111¼.

THE unanimity of the Republican press of the State in lending cordial and hearty endorsement to the ticket and platform of the recent Harrisburg Convention, augurs well for a brilliant victory next Fall.

THE Post chuckles with all the childish glee it possesses over a parallel publication of old and new opinions of the GAZETTE. We never laid claim to infallibility, and therein, we presume, we do not differ much from our contemporary; but we hold it a privilege and duty to change our opinion whensoever truth and justice demand it, and herein we do differ widely from our neighbor—else the progressiveness of Vallandigham would find endorsement in the columns of the Post.

NOW since the report comes to us from Washington that Mr. Bancroft contemplates resigning the Berlin mission, it is no breach of etiquette to announce that in a recent private conversation with our correspondent resident in that city, our Minister asserted his firm determination to resign next October and to return to this country. We have no abler representative abroad than Mr. Bancroft and none who sustains the honor and dignity of our nation in a foreign court more gracefully.

AND, NOW, OH! ye Democratic editors prepare to howl! It is given out that President Grant is about to repair for vacation to his cottage on the beach at Long Branch. Where now will the country go? Last year the President's departure for a Summer resort caused every Democratic editor in the land to throw up his hands in holy horror and proclaim the awful crime of departure from the White House as something worthy impeachment. The country went on regularly enough, however, while the Chief Executive, calmly smoked stogies on the beach.

THE coal troubles are said to be at end in the anthracite regions. We have so often announced the pleasant termination of these difficulties and have had to contradict the assertions as many times, that we cannot fully feel assured of the present giving out that work has been resumed. We earnestly hope, however, that such is the case, and moreover that a very long time will elapse before a repetition of the scenes in the Scranton district will have to be recorded. It is somewhat singular that we at this end of the State, with our miles of coal mines and thousands of miners, never have such occurrences; but we think our companies have more regard for the workingmens' rights and deal with them more considerately than do the heavy monopolists of the anthracite regions. Capital and labor will go harmoniously enough together in all places, if the interests of the one be not neglected, ignored or forgotten by the other.

THE DEMOCRACY of Ohio are about on the eve of splitting in to divisions over the new departure inaugurated and precipitated upon them by the irrepressible Vallandigham. Even our good neighbors of the Post have much trouble in swallowing the pill prepared. They do not know which horn of the dilemma to take, whether to stop still in their beaten tracks or take a step forward in the wake of the progressive Republican party. This upheavel in Democratic ranks comes in good season. If members of that party can venture to advance out of the ruts of prejudice they have so long traveled in, if they are compelled to follow after the party of advancement and acknowledge that they have been so very long living in darkness, they only prove that the world is moving on and that they will be completely lost sight of in the dim places of the past which they occupy, but which have long since been left and abandoned by the Republicans. We regard Vallandigham's movement as a good one from our stand point. Let him keep on in his strides and who knows but his wing of the party may be brought bodily into the great national party of the land, and that only a few withered fogies may be left lurking in the rear as stragglers unable to keep pace in the rapid march of liberal ideas and living principles.

IT WOULD seem that the brief rule of the maddened Commune of Paris is at length at an end, their citadels of strength all being in the hands of the troops of Versailles. A few more days, will in all probability, witness peace restored to frenzied France, but how long it may last God only knows. The people are so thoroughly divided among themselves and the enmity and prejudice of classes so largely prevail that hardly any pacific method for the settlement of existing troubles can be adopted. The world will watch with anxious interest the doings in France for the next month, during which period a government may be erected and order enforced at the point of the bayonet. There are no signs that a Republic will be erected, and yet a dynasty that would accept rulership over France to-day must be possessed with a bravery and moral courage past the ordinary. The positive power of a great and loyal army will alone maintain any government in that country for years to come, and he who cannot raise and maintain such must look to his head if he ascends the throne. The French, having tasted liberally of blood, having proved to the world their incapacity to rule themselves or to be guided in the proper direction by the dictates of good sound common sense, will not settle down to peaceful and ordinary life or submission to authority for a generation to come, or not indeed, until the nitro-glycerine elements of society shall have passed away.

SPRING ATTIRE.

Our neighbor, the Chronicle, appeared last evening, smiling all over in a bran new suit from toptotoe. We are pleased to observe and notice this evidence of prosperity, and trust that it may continue, as long as its present proprietors remain to adorn their profession. We have always admired the tone which permeates the columns of our cotemporary, usually an independent one, and always pure, and elevated. This, among other things, makes it a welcome guest at the family fire side. We wish our neighbors long life and continued prosperity.

A MOVE IN THE RIGHT DIRECTION.

The subjoined circular letter has been addressed by the Board of Directors of the "Young Men's Mercantile Library, and Mechanics Institute" to the stockholders of the "Library Hall Company," which will fully explain itself. It is well-known that the present library building was erected by the latter corporation, and still remains their property, the "Library Association" merely renting their room as any other tenant might do. The ultimate design of the corporators of the "Hall Company" was to hand the building over to the "Library Association" after the money which they had advanced to secure its erection had been returned to them. But the original plans having been changed, and the building greatly enlarged, it has cost much more than was at first contemplated, and more than the amount of stock subscribed. Bonds have been issued to cover this deficiency, and it is presumed that it will require all of the surplus earnings of the building for the next ten or twenty years, to meet the interest on these, and put aside a sum annually for their ultimate liquidation This being the case, a proposition was made by quite a number of the stockholders, to donate their shares to the "Library Association," in order that the original idea, viz, the transfer of the building to the latter corporation, might be hastened. An opportunity is now offered to all of the stockholders of the "Hall Company" to do the same, and a number have already signified their intention to avail themselves of it. It will be a munificent and praiseworthy act, and we hope soon to be enabled to publish the names of the donors.

YOUNG MEN'S MERCANTILE LIBRARY AND MECHANIC'S INSTITUTE.

PITTSBURGH, May 8th, 1871.

DEAR SIR: A large number of the Stockholders of the "Library Hall Company," having generously proposed to donate their stock to the "Library Association," as soon as they would be prepared to receive it, we beg most respectfully to inform you that we are now ready to avail ourselves of the liberal offer. We think it would add much to the honor of our great manufacturing metropolis, if the splendid and convenient edifice, which has been reared through the munificence of a number of our citizens, and which is at once the admiration of scientific architects, vocal artists, public lecturers, and ladies and gentlemen of acknowledged judgment and exquisite taste in such matters, were placed under the exclusive control of the "Library Association." Such a proposal, if carried out, will contribute much to the promotion of literary culture among our young people, and give to the "Library Association" a more commanding and influential position than it has ever yet occupied.

Knowing your deep interest in the matter, and the generous liberality which you have uniformly evinced for our Library, we take the liberty of presenting the subject to your considerate attention, and earnestly request an early and favorable response.

On behalf of the Board,
HENRY M. LONG, President.

DANGEROUS OPPOSITION.

Our Democratic fellow-citizens seem to have made up their minds to be satisfied with nothing however meritorious, that the Republican party may do to restore peace and prosperity to our whole country. There are few but will be able to call to mind the frequent declarations made by the Democracy, through their organs and orators in 1861, that the Constitution conferred no power upon the government to coerce a State, or prevent it from seceding from the Union. Every obstacle was thrown in the way to embarrass Abraham Lincoln, when with honest head and heart he set himself to save the country and the government. Although there was a difference of opinion among learned jurists in regard to the right of the President to suspend the writ of habeas corpus, Judge Taney, Chief Justice of the Supreme Court of the United States, decided that it "could only be suspended by act of Congress." But the Democraty were not satisfied even, when in accordance with the decision of Judge Taney, Congress enacted a law authorizing the President to suspend the "privilege of the writ." They raised the cry of tyranny and usurpation. The Constitution says; "The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when in cases of rebellion or invasion the public safety may require it." But the Democracy could see no rebellion, and consequently no constitutional ground upon which to suspend the writ, although our sons, brothers and friends were being offered in hecatombs on the altar of their country to perpetuate its institution and save its honor.

We have never had much faith in the doctrine that history repeats itself, but we do think there is a striking similarity between the utterances of the Democratic journals in the days of the Rebellion, and those which they flaunt daily in their columns now. They have inverted their political glasses and can only see Ku-Kluxism in the dim distance. They are greatly alarmed at the "tremendous power" which the Ku-Klux bill confers upon the President. Although incipient rebellion is manifesting itself as distinctly in the South now as it did in 1860 and 1861, and innocent men, women and children are being daily murdered by vile miscreants, for no other crime than that they are devoted to the welfare of their country, and claim to exercise the right of franchise according to their political convictions, yet the Democratic journals can see no reason why such extraordinary powers should be conferred by Congress on the President, notwithstanding Judge Taney declared that the right to do so is inherent in the National Legislature.

If the Government has not power to protect its citizens in any and every State when ruthlessly assailed by masked and armed ruffians, the sooner it is dissolved the better. If State authorities will not exercise their powers, or lack the necessary force to protect the citizens within their limits, then it is the duty of the legislative and executive branches of the National Government to interpose and throw the shield of their protection around innocent, suffering and loyal citizens. The Ku-Klux bill confers this power and nothing more, and the great mass of the people of the country have faith in President Grant that he will not prostitute any authority with which he is invested to base or selfish purposes.

We seriously warn the Democracy of the North against pursuing the course now which fanned rebellion into a flame in 1861, and brought so much disaster on the country. They will show their patriotism and good sense, if instead of throwing embarrassments in the way of President Grant, as they did in that of President Lincoln, they will lend their aid to stifle and suppress every feeling of insubordination that manifests itself in the South. Opposite to the Ku-Klux bill, will in our humble opinions involve in great danger the permanent peace and prosperity of the nation.

Desperate Affair at Osage Mission—Sheriff Wounded—One of His Posse Killed and Another Wounded.

From passengers who came up on the Galveston train, yesterday morning, we learn of a desperate encounter at Osage Mission, on Thursday last, which resulted in the death of Mr. Charles Mills, brother of T. P. Mills of Topeka, and the wounding of the Sheriff, and one other of his assistants

The facts, as we gather them, are about these: The Sheriff had occasion to arrest a desperado, whose name we could not learn, and summoned a posse for that purpose. The desparado, drawing his pistol, showed fight when the Sheriff approached. The result was the death of Mills and the wounding of the Sheriff and another man. We did not hear whether the desperado was finally captured or not, but there was a rumor that Mills wounded him, even after he had himself received one or two shots. Mr. Mills was a young man highly respected where known, and his father, who resides at Iola, received a dispatch yesterday informing of the tragic death of his son.—Lawrence (Kansas) Journal, May 13th.

THE Housatonic railway has contracted to transport within the next six years 21,600 tons of marble from the Ingersoll quarrry in Lee for the Catholic Cathedral in New York city. The building is so large that the quarry at Pleasantville, N. Y., would not supply the material fast enough, and it is expected it will take fully six years to complete it, with both quarries at work.

THE Courier-Journal says: We are told by the Albany Argus that "Gen. Sherman's father died when he was a lad, leaving a large family of children." This, if true, is a very remarkable circumstance. The lad may have died and left the children, but we can never be made to believe that they were his own.

ANOTHER instance of the purchase and sale of a wife has been revealed in England The woman, who applied to the stipendiary magistrate for relief, stated that her purchaser, who had recently deserted her, bought her of her husband twenty-five years ago, ratifying the transaction by standing in that gentleman's shoes for a few moments.

THE dry-dock at Savannah is nearly completed. It will be larger than any south of New York; was commenced in January, 1869, and has already cost $250,000. It is forty-five feet wide on the floor, 80 at the top, and 350 long. At high tide it will have 18 feet depth of water, and an 80 horse power engine discharging 20,000 gallons per minute

OUR amiable Kentucky friend, the Courier-Journal, has taken kindly to our lessons, and gives Pittsburgh her rightful terminal "h." Being a little unaccustomed to correct speaking as yet, it puts perhaps a shade too much of rising inflection at the end of the word, but it may get over that if it perseveres. At present it calls us the PITTSBURG H GAZETTE.

MRS. ISAAC TALBOT, of St. Charles, Minn., shot herself on Friday of last week with a Spencer carbine, by placing the muzzle of the gun to the lower part of the abdomen, and, as is supposed, touching the trigger with her toe. The ball passed diagonally through the body, coming out at the back near the shoulder-blade. She made one scream as the gun went off, and died in two or three minutes.

IN Hall Township, Bureau county, Ill., last Tuesday, a German—name not given—aged about fifty-five years, in a fit of mental aberation (as it is supposed) set fire to his house, and a corn-crib containing about 1,500 bushels of corn. The flames set an adjoining stable, also belonging to him, on fire, burning that with its contents, including three horses. The man then deliberately cut his throat and died.

THE Virginia City (Nevada) Enterprise of the 9th inst. reiterates its assertion that the Steamboat Springs have dried up, and says that not only is there no water to be seen where huge volumes of hot water were wont to boil and bubble and spurt, but no steam is to be seen where formerly it rushed up in vast columns from holes and crevices in the rocks. The hot spring at the Bowers Mansion, west of Washoe Lake, and five miles from Steamboat Springs, has also ceased to flow.

Judge C., of Memphis, was recently called to preside as chairman of a public meeting in that city. During the proceedings an exciting discussion sprung up, and amid the confusion of loud speeches, motions and cross motions, one speaker called out impatiently to have his motion put to the meeting. "Has your motion a second?" inquired the chair. "Yes sir; it has fifty seconds at least." "Then let it have ten more and then the chair will make a minute of it."

THE late Hon. Wm. P. Fessenden once made a remark which was interpreted as an insult to Mr. Seward. When informed of it, and seeing such a meaning could be given to his words, he immediately went to Mr. Seward and said: Mr. Seward, I have insulted you. I am sorry for it. I did not mean it. This apology, so prompt and frank and perfect so delighted Mr. Seward, that grasping him by the hand, he exclaimed, "God bless you, Fessenden, I wish you would insult me again."

PRESIDENT WOOLSEY, of Yale College, has ascertained that in the past seven years there have been 730 divorces and 15,710 marriages in Vermont, a ratio of one to every twenty-one. In Massachusetts, for a period of four years, there was a total of 1,021 divorces to 45,872 marriages, a ratio of one to forty-four. In Ohio, in 1866, the divorces were 1,169, marriages 30,479, a ratio of one to twenty-seven. In Connecticut, in a period of eight years, there were 2,910 divorces and 33,227 marriages, a ratio of one to eleven.

A PALMYRA letter to a Cincinnati paper says that the Ku-Klux of Northern Missouri having abducted, and probably murdered, a Union man named Ausland, Gen. McNeil published an order to the effect that if Ausland were not returned within 10 days, he would take 10 rebel prisoners from the jail and have them shot. He kept his word. Ausland was not forthcoming, and 10 rebels were selected by lot. One of the chosen being a man of family, a young man volunteered to take his place, and was shot with the rest. A strange story truly, although vouched for.

A RENSSELAER county young man has come to grief. Unfortunately, while visiting one day last week the young lady who had won his young heart's affection, and settling the preliminaries of their expected marriage, he rashly remarked that the union would be peculiarly advantageous to her, because he moved in much better society than she. And then up sprang that insulted female. Seizing a huge carving knife from the table, she went for that young man, and the youth went for the door. He had her arrested for assault, and the engagement has been broken off.

AT Ypsilanti, Michigan, on Sunday evening, two young gentlemen who, for some time past have been very attentive to a young lady, both called on her, when, seeing the trouble that was coming, she expressed her preference then and there. The rejected one, bent on some revenge, ejected the more fortunate lover from the house and followed him down the street, firing at him two or three times with a revolver, fortunately not hitting him. The officers are on the track of the would-be-murderer, but as yet he has not been taken. The parties are well known, and it has made not a little excitement.

THE N. Y. Tribune says: "Wall street is puzzled about continued mysterious purchases of Erie stock. Those stock brokers who are connected with the present managers of the road strenuously deny that Vanderbilt is maneuvering to obtain control of it; they bring prominently into view the fact that shares are advancing in price, and allude to some powerful combination of unknown persons steadily buying up as much of the stock as can be reached. They scout the suggestion that Fisk and Gould are in straitened circumstances, financially. On the other hand, it is maintained that Vanderbilt is steadily making his way into the Erie stronghold, and that Fisk and Gould will be speedily compelled to capitulate. Some say that it is the Tammany nabobs who are absorbing all the floating stock of Erie. Belmont, they say, has entered this field, joining a movement the object of which is to prevent the Erie Company, with its 25,000 employes, from ceasing to be a part of the Tammany machine.

A TELEGRAM from Willmar, Minn., on the 16th inst., says: "A most bloody and startling tragedy occurred twelve miles south of Willmar, this afternoon. A young man named Richard W. Coney hired a horse and buggy a week ago, to go to Yellow Medicine, but stopped at Emerson's, twelve miles out, and left his horse, borrowing a shot-gun, and proceeded on foot. He reached Granite Falls and found two men, named Simpson and Wethren (the latter a merchant there), about starting afoot for Willmar. He accompanied them, and, when near Emerson's, he fell in the rear. Simpson was leading, and, hearing a report, turned and saw Wethren fall. At the same time he received a full charge from the other barrel, tearing off his entire chin and horribly mutilating his face. He fell, but instantly recovered, rose, and ran, followed by Coney, who was swearing and telling him to lay down or he would kill him. Coney reloaded his gun, but could not catch Simpson, after a quarter of a mile race. Simpson was brought to Willmar in a most critical condition by the same team Coney borrowed. Coney is only about 20 years old; hails from Vermont; claims to be a book-binder; had been in Willmar about a month. Wethren is an old man. He was on his way to St. Paul to buy goods, and is supposed to have been killed. Simpson was looking for land. A large force has gone out on horseback to catch the murderer."

THE SUNNY SOUTH.

THE Springfield, Mo., Leader reports a terrific hail storm in Barry county on the 1st inst. Hail stones as large as a hen's egg fell during the storm, and in some places were collected to a depth of two feet. Vegetation was completely demolished.

SATURDAY before last, the 13th, a difficulty occurred between two men, Stephen Lovall and Sam Denton, at Glasgow Junction, Brown county, Kentucky, in which the former struck the latter on the head with a rock, fracturing his skull, and inflicting, it is thought, a fatal wound. Lovall was held to bail in the sum of $500.

HARPER JAMES, of Elmore county, was killed last Saturday evening, near Robinson's Springs, Alabama, in a personal encounter with his brother-in law, William Bugg, once a minister of the gospel in the Baptist church. James had his throat cut from ear to ear and died almost immediately. Bugg was arrested and lodged in Wetumpka jail. The origin of the quarrel was that Bugg was charged by the deceased with having seduced his young sister.

AN incendiary attempt was made on Monday night last, to burn down the Female College at Agusta, Bracken county, Ky., in which some thirty young ladies were sleeping at the time. The fire was extinguished before much damage was done, but perfectly clear indications were found, lying about the position of the fire, of the agency of an incendiary, The city council has offered a reward of $250 for any information that will lead to the apprehension and conviction of the would-be incendiary and assassin.

THE Telegraph and Messenger (Macon, Ga.,) has been informed of an atrocious murder that was perpetrated on Sunday night last at Station No. 9, on the Central Railroad. When the up freight train stopped at that point, a Mr. Drew, one of the train hands, and another man left the train a short distance, and were met by an unknown man, who first asked Mr. Drew's friend if his name was Drew, and receiving a negative reply, he then addressed the same interrogatory to Mr. Drew, who replied, "that is my name, sir." Whereupon the assassin placed a pistol within an inch or two of Drew's breast and fired, the shot killing Drew instantly. The murderer then took to the woods and effected his escape. No cause is assigned for the cold-blooded murder.

THE Warrenton, Mo., Banner, of the 16th, says:

"Last Monday a negro named Ben Powell, murdered one Amanda Dyer, a negress about forty-five years of age. It seems that Powell's wife is crazy, and imagined that the murdered woman had bewitched her. Powell was naturally 'sorter' superstitious, and, on the day of the murder persuaded two other negroes to go with him to Butler's for the purpose of taking Amanda to his house and making her take off the spell' he believed her to have put on his wife. By force they succeeded in taking her, but instead of her presence having the desired effect, his crazy wife immediately flew into a passion and attempted to kill her child. This frightend the negroes so badly that they all started off at full tilt, Amanda running into the woods, Powell followed her, and in a short time returned to the house. In answer to the inquiry as to where the woman was, he said 'she was down in the woods,' and that he had 'fixed her.' Search being made, her corpse was found, and Powell confessen to having choked her to death. The Sheriff arrested the murderer, and placed him in prison to await examination."

POLITICAL.

THE bill for a Constitutional Convention in Massachusetts has been defeated.

THE Louisville Courier-Journal endorses the action of J. Q. Adams and C. L. Vallandigham.

THE Connecticut House of Representatives, on Wednesday last, indefinitely postponed, by a vote of 98 to 79, a resolution to appoint a Special Committee on the subject of woman suffrage.

HON. B. RUSH PLUMLEY and Hon. Richard Allen are candidates for the Republican nomination for Congress in the Third District of Texas. The nominating Convention is to be held in Houston on Wednesday, August 24.

ROBERT TOOMBS, in a lecture at Augusta, Ga., urged his hearers to make no compromise, to have nothing to do with men who talk of dead issues and accepting the situation, and to make a square fight of it now and hereafter.

THE Missouri Democrat has a sharp article on Senator Carl Schurz, calling on that gentleman to define his position. It thinks a candid avowal on his part would either allay or confirm the apprehensions of thousands who have been his friends.

THE Louisville Ledger, the organ of the extreme Democrats, says that as four Kentucky judges have decided to admit negro testimony, and as the United States Supreme Court would certainly sustain these decisions, whether the State Court of Appeals reverses or affirms them, negro testimony may be put aside in Kentucky as a dead issue, and one which need no longer be discussed with a view to any action of the State Legislature for its adjustment.

A LETTER from Senator Schurz to the Secretary of the Central Republican Association (the new departure movement) of Cincinnati, says: "I shall certainly stop at Cincinnati after the close of the extra session of the Senate. I shall fix the day at least a week ahead, provided a speech from me seems desirable to you. The movement you have organized in Ohio is an excellent one—just what is needed in times like these. Your organization ought to spread all over the country, and I shall be most happy to contribute whatever I can toward that end."

Mr. Arthur Helps.

Mr. Arthur Helps, who in society is one of the quietest of men, preferring listening to talking, has the art of producing books. With his pen he is a different man. To-day his new volumes are the Life of Hernando Cortes. In a dedication to "My dear Carlyle," Mr. Helps explains that the work is not a mere extract from his History of the Spanish Conquest, but that he has added greatly to the parts which concern the private life of Cortes. He dedicates the work to Mr. Carlyle, "because I desire an occasion to record my gratitude for all your kindness to me in times past. When you first honored me by making me your friend, I was a mere youth, while you were in the full maturity of manhood; but you were always kind and tolerant to me, and we were from the first, as we have been ever since, the best of friends. In all our walkings, ridings, and talkings together, I cannot remember a single occasion on which a harsh or unkind word was ever said by one to the other." Mr. Helps proceeds to express his conviction that he has not exaggerated the wonders and the glories of ancient Mexico. There are ninety folios of manuscript in the collection of Munoz, and these he went over as best he could when residing at Madrid. Mr. Helps adds in detail other evidence which convinces him that Mexican civilization had reached a height which, in many respects, was unequalled at that time in any other known kingdom of the civilized world. Mr. Carlyle and Mr. Froude, it appears, hinted to the author that there might be doubts as to the truth of the wonderful things he had said about Mexico.

HARD RUBBER TRUSSES.

You have observed posted up around the city placards of hard rubber trusses, which are said to retain any rupture, however severe, with the additional advantage that they will not rust or corrode. Dr. Keyser, at 167 Liberty street, has these, as well as every other kind of truss that may be needed for the relief and cure of hernia or rupture of the bowels. Let the afflicted remember as they go along that Dr. Keyser's after all is the place. If you want cheap trusses, from two dollars and upwards, the Doctor has them, as well as the best and highest quality that can be procured in the United States.

To the ruptured, there is nothing of equal importance to have a well fitting and properly adjusted instrument, therefore let not persons who have a breach or rupture waste valuable time in trying useless and inefficient remedies, when a sure and absolute relief can be obtained at Dr. Keyser's Truss Depot, 167 Liberty street, which is at the same time an office for the cure of every chronic disease. Cut this advertisement out, so that you can remember the place. my23

THE HOUSEHOLD TONIC.
The efficacy of Hostetter's Celebrated Stomach Bitters as a specific for recruiting the enfeebled body and cheering the desponding mind has passed into a proverb. In the United States, where this marvelous tonic has borne down all opposition and eclipsed all rivalry, the demand for it has annually increased in a heavier and heavier ratio for years, until at last, the regular sales of this preparation exceed those of all other stomachics combined. Eminent members of the medical profession and hospital surgeons without number have candidly admitted that the pharmacopœia of the faculty contains no prescription that produces such beneficial effects in dyspepsia, general debility and nervous diseases, as Hostetter's Bitters. To use the language of a venerable physician of New York, "The Bitters are the purest stimulant and the safest tonic we have. But the uces of the great vegetable antidote are much more comprehensive than such praise would imply. As a preparatory antidote to epidemic disease, a genial stimulant, a promoter of constitutional vigor, an appetizer, a stomachic, and a remedy for nervous debility, no medicinal preparation has ever attained the reputation of Hostetter's Bitters. It is the household tonic of the American people, and in all human probability will be so for centuries to come. The magnates of science recognize its merits; and that it is emphatically the medicine of the masses, is proved by its vast and ever increasing sales.

WASHINGTON, May 15, 1871.
Sealed proposals will be received at this office until one o'clock of Friday, the 9th day of June, 1871, from iron manufacturers only, for furnishing the materials and labor of all kinds necessary to construct a first-order iron light-house for Southwest Pass, Louisiana, in accordance with the accompanying specifications and drawings.
The same to be delivered, at the expense of the contractor, on board of a sea-going vessel or vessels, at any sea port nearest to the manufacturer's workshops, and accessible to such vessels.
The Light-House Board will provide all the timber work, bolts, and concrete for the foundation pier, the glass for the lantern, the lens, lamps, and furniture belonging thereto, and their cost is not to be included in the amount of the bid, but the contractor will be required to furnish all the wood-work above the foundation pier, and the cost thereof shall be included in the amount of the bid.
The bid should state the sum for which the ENTIRE WORK, as shown on the drawings will be completed, fully erected at the workshops, and then taken down after acceptance, and delivered as aforesaid, and should also state the day and date on which it shall be so completed and delivered, under forfeit, as specified in the "Form of Bid."
The work will be carried on under the personal supervision of an agent of the Board, and all facilities must be afforded him for inspecting the material and workmanship. Such parts of either as are not in accordance with the drawings and specifications must, in case of rejection, be made good at the expense of the contractor.
The Board reserves the right to reject any proposal for any reasons it may deem sufficient.
Each bid must be accompanied by a bond, signed by the bidder and two competent sureties (certified to be such by some officer known to the Treasury Department), in the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), that, in the event of the acceptance of such bid, the necessary contract will be entered into within ten (10) days after notice is given by the Board that the bid has been accepted.
Bond and security, in the sum of twenty thousand dollars ($20,000), signed by two competent bondsmen for the faithful performance of the contract, will be required.
A copy of the plans and specifications must be inclosed with the bid, as evidence as to the object of the proposal.
All proposals must be signed, sealed, and indorsed "Proposals for a light-house for Southwest Pass, Louisiana," and then inclosed in another envelope and directed, prepaid, to Rear-Admiral W. B. Shubrick, Chairman of the Light-House Board, Treasury Department, Washington, D. C.
Any bidder may be present and witness the opening of the bids at the time and place hereinbefore specified.
Payments for the work will be made quarterly, upon estimates certified to by the agent of the Board; but twenty (20) per centum of the amount of each estimate will be withheld until the satisfactory completion of the contract.

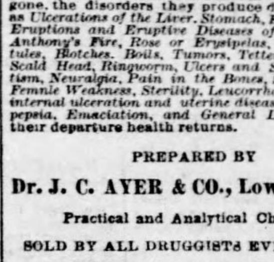
Ayer's Sarsaparilla
FOR PURIFYING THE BLOOD.


A medicine that cures is a real public blessing. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA makes positive cure of a series of complaints, which are always afflicting and too often fatal. It purifies the blood, purges out the lurking humors in the system, which undermine health and settle into troublesome disorders. Eruptions of the skin are the appearance on the surface of humors that should be expelled from the blood. Internal derangements are the determination of these same humors to some internal organ, or organs, whose action they derange and whose substance they disease and destroy. AYER'S SARSAPARILLA expels these humors from the blood. When they are gone, the disorders they produce disappear, such as Ulcerations of the Liver, Stomach, Kidneys, Lungs, Eruptions and Eruptive Diseases of the Skin, St. Anthony's Fire, Rose or Erysipelas, Pimples, Pustules, Blotches, Boils, Tumors, Tetter, Salt Rheum, Scald Head, Ringworm, Ulcers and Sores, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Pain in the Bones, Side and Head, Female Weakness, Sterility, Leucorrhœa arising from internal ulceration and uterine disease, Dropsy, Dyspepsia, Emaciation, and General Debility. With their departure health returns.

MONEY AND COMMERCE.

The table of gross earnings of a number of the most prominent railroads in the country, for the first four months of the current year, is taken from the Financial Chronicle. The increase is certainly satisfactory and furnishes new confirmation of previously expressed opinions in these columns of the value of railway securities for investment purposes. The scandalous mismanagement of the Erie Road (and, indeed, the wasteful management of many others) has given good cause for caution in purchasing either the mortgage bonds or the shares of railways. The conspicuous improvement in net profits, against a large actual decrease in gross earnings, shown in the statements made by the Chicago & Northwestern Road and the Union Pacific, gives evidence of a return to sound business practices in railroad management. The old maxim, "a penny saved is two pence gained," is quite as applicable to railroading as anything else. With honest and careful management, there is scarcely a road in the country that will not soon pay large dividends to its stockholders. And if the practice of watering the capital stocks of the roads could be prevented by National or State Legislature the people would soon reap their share of benefit in cheap fares and low freights. The earnings for the month of April exhibit an increase over the corresponding month in 1870, as follows. The Central Pacific, $122,492; the Chicago & Alton, $45,165; The Illinois Central, $33,574; Milwaukee & St. Paul, $40,751; Toledo, Wabash & Western, $125,511.

NEW YORK, May 22.

Gold has been rather weak in consequence of reports from Washington, indicating the passage of the treaty. Opened at 111⅜ and sold up to 112 and closed at 111⅞@111¾. Loans were made at 1@2 per cent. Clearings about thirty-eight millions. Governments firm with small business. Stocks at the opening were excited and feverish, and large speculative business. Lake Shore has been the center of attraction with Erie and Rock Island next in point of interest. About noon there was a general decline of from ⅛@¼c. At the close the market was firm but dull, with recovery to the highest point of the day with exception of Lake Shore which was weak. The cliques well loaded up but the sentiment of the market to-day was divided about equally between the bulls and bears. Money easy at 3@4 per cent. Southern State bonds at the second board were strong on Virginia and new South Carolinas. The remainder of the list was steady.

Not enough doing in Barley to establish quotations—receipts very meagre and market is almost bare, excepting what is in hands of consumers.

GROCERIES—Sugars have stiffened somewhat within the past two days in the east, though there is no quotable advance in prices. CATTLE.

Thirty-eight car loads, counting 18 to the car, would aggregate 684 head and counting a few straggling lots from the country there were at least 700 head, an ordinary supply for these yards. The attendance of buyers was not as large as usual, a large number of the butchers having been attracted to the new retail yards at East Liberty, and, in consequence the market was not as good as it would otherwise have been; however, all things considered, the drovers had no reason to complain, although there were several lots and parts of lots left over unsold—some five or six car loads, all told. Prices ruled lower than last week, though this was voluntary on the part of the drovers generally, as many of them had resolved not to be undersold at East Liberty; good to prime steers, fat and smooth, were sold at 6⅛@7 cts—some few extra bringing 7⅛; common and medium may be quoted at 5⅛ to 6@6⅛, and scalawags at 5@5⅛.

The Allegheny drovers are firmly resolved that the retail business in Allegheny shall not be broken up if they can help it; they will continue to have a full supply of cattle on sale every Monday, and have resolved that they can and will furnish the butchers with cattle at as low prices as they can be obtained at East Liberty. The Allegheny men, also argue that it is to the interest of the butchers to keep up the old yards, from the fact that they will not be obliged to cope with eastern buyers; while at East Liberty, when it is to their interest, shippers will run the prices up on them; and that, furthermore, they will not have the same chance to make selections. There was a very good supply on sale to-day, and average quality, if anything, was rather better than usual.

Emerick & Co. sold 2 head of oxen, weighing 3,375 lbs to Peter Fairley, at 6⅛.

E. Katz reports two loads of Chicago stock, at 6⅛@7⅛.

Peter Hartman sold, 18 head of good to prime butchers stock, at 6⅛@7 cts.

M. Varner had one load of good to extra butchers cattle, at 6⅛@7⅛.

Carr & McAllister report one load from Chicago and one from Ohio, at 6⅛@7⅛.

J. W. Unger sold 2 fresh cows, at $82 for the two; 2 bulls at $34 each.

Hazlewood & Blackstock sold 15 head of good steers, at 6⅛@7 cts.

Jacob Needy reports 33 head of Chicago stock, at 6@7 cts.

Keefer & Beyer 38 head of good to prime butchers stock, at 6@7.

S. Kraus 45 head good to prime butchers stock, at 6@6⅛.

M. Kauffman 19 head of Ohio steers, at 6,30@6,50.

S. Marks & Bro. 86 good to extra butchers stock from Chicago, 6@7⅛—9 extra sold to Weidy & Gregg on private terms.

Sol. Shamberg reports 17 head good to prime at 6⅛@7.

S. Lowensteine two loads from Chicago.

Jacob Lobman 17 head at 5@7 cts.

Sol. Traurman reports 42 head of fair to prime, at 5⅛@7⅛.

Rothchilds & Zegler report 52 head of good to prime butchers stock, at 6@7 cts.

L. & J. Shamberg report two loads, at 6,40@7,12⅛.

Jas. Hanlin reports 19 head of Washington Co. stock, at 6@6⅛.

W. Wernz sold 19 head of Ohio steers, at 6⅛@7 cts.

Greenwald & Kahn report 56 head of good to prime Ohio stillers for Guckenheimer Bro. at 6⅛@7 cts—26 head of good Ohio heifers, at 6@6⅛.

SHEEP AND LAMBS.

The offerings were large to-day, unusually so, footing up about 1,600, double the number that has been on this market within the past year, and, as might be expected, the market was a hard one, prices ruling lower, and quite a number were left over unsold. The commoner grades were more affected in price and every other way than the best grades, but all kinds, as already intimated, lower, and dealers were all obliged to make concessions in order to effect sales. Sheep sold all the way from $2,50 per head to 7⅛ cts per lb, and lambs from $2,00 to $5,00 per head—one only small bunch sold at the outside figure.

Jacob Emmell reports 60 head from Butler Co; sold sheep at an average of $4 per head, and lambs at $2,75@4,40; sold 7 head of extra sheep, averaging 167 lbs, at $18 per head—these were sold some weeks ago but not before reported.

Sheitemantle & Flinner sold 130 sheep and lambs at $3,00@6,50 per head for former and $2,25@3,00 for the latter.

Adam Eckert reports 115 lambs at $2,50@5,00 per head—sold 20 extra Allegheny Co. lambs to Jos Harrison at $5; also, 38 sheep at 6@7⅛ cts per lb.

John Walters reports 20 sheep at $3,50@5,00 per head; 40 lambs at $2,00@3,50.

Frank Kraus had 165 head from Washington Co., sold 65 at 5⅛@6 cts—100 left over.

Jas. Shaw sold 19 lambs at $2,50@3,00; 60 sheep at $2,50@5,00 per head.

S. A. Vandever, 100 head; $2@3 for lambs and $3@5 for sheep.

I. C. McNeese, 80 head from Butler Co; sold sheep at $3,00@5,50 per head; lambs at $1,50@3,50.

A. Stakely reports 58 lambs at $2,50@3,50 per head.

Cunningham wholesaled 75 head pretty good clipped sheep, to Humes, at $3.

M. Humes reports 124 lambs, from Beaver Co, at $2,50@3,25, and 16 sheep at an average of $3,50.

H. Nogle reports 75 common clipped sheep, from Butler Co, at an average of about $3.

J. W. Unger sold 45 wooled sheep, from Stark Co, Ohio, at $3,00@4,80 per head.

G. F. Carter sold 60 head of fairish Green Co, sheep at $2,50@4,00 per head.

C. H. Moulton, 60 head of Armstrong Co. stock at $3@4.

John Drum sold 40 sheep at an average of $5,50 per head; 22 lambs at an average of $4.

Williamson had some 40 head of bucks, on commission, but they were unsold at 10 o'clock.

Jacob Rian had 250 head of mixed Ohio sheep and lambs for Wm Wernz, at an average of about $2,50 per head.

HOGS.

There is little or no demand for hogs, notwithstanding the continued shrinkage in price, nor is it likely that there will be any improvement until the warm weather is over. Quotations in a retail way may be given at 5@5⅛ gross.

PITTSBURGH CATTLE MARKET.

CENTRAL STOCK YARDS, EAST LIBERTY, MAY 22, 1871.

CATTLE.

The long looked for opening of the new retail cattle yards, at East Liberty took place, to-day, and the event was pronounced a complete success by the friends of the enterprise. While it was generally expected that there would be a fair attendance of butchers, some of whom it was supposed would be drawn hither more out of curiosity than anything else, the number in attendance was much larger than even the most sanguine friends of the movement had counted upon. It was generally expected, even by the Allegheny drovers, that the Lawrenceville and East Liberty butchers would go to the Central Yards, as the distance is not so great as to Allegheny, and, it is well known, that distance is an important item in driving cattle, particularly through a crowded city; however, not only were the Lawrenceville and East Liberty butchers out in full force, but there were also quite a number on hand from Birmingham and even Allegheny, and so far as we could learn, they all seemed to be well satisfied.

As we have already noted, the retail yards are entirely new, having been completed but a few weeks ago; and are well located and nicely and conveniently arranged in all respects for the retail business. It is true, they are small, but as business increases they will be enlarged, as there is plenty of room, so that there need be no apprehension in this respect. The construction of the retail pens was superintended by Mr. O. H. Allerton, superintendant of the yards, and the plans and specifications were furnished by Wm. J. Lafferty, Esq. of the firm of Holmes, Lafferty & Co., the well-known stock dealers.

The number of cattle sold footed up exactly three hundred head, all of which, with the exception of two or three car loads, were bought by our butchers, and it is worthy of remark, that they were all of good quality—better than is usually thrown upon a retail market. They were selected, in Chicago, by Mr. Wm. Blackstock, of the firm of Hazlewood & Blackstock, specially for the occasion, and besides being good, they were disposed of at comparatively low prices, the great proportion of the sales ranging from 6 to 7 cts. As will be seen, the selling was conducted by well-known dealers, Holmes, Lafferty & Co.; Hazlewood & Blackstock; Hedges, Taylor & Huff; Peter Klemen; Smith, Watson & Briggs and James McCauley.

After business was over, all were invited to dinner, and for an hour and a half to two hours, the capacious dining saloon was crowded with drovers and butchers, and that they did full justice to the good things set before them, there is no room to doubt. The East Liberty Cornet Brass Band furnished some very fine music and under the influence of the music and champaign some of the stock men became very happy.

S. W. Allerton, of Chicago, one of the great moguls in the stock trade of this country, and who controls, perhaps, more than any other man these Yards, was in attendance, and seemed to be well pleased with this, the first attempt to establish a retail business at East Liberty. He says that it is bound to succeed and that he is determined to make this one of the largest and best live stock markets between New York and Chicago.

Mr. Lowrey, the weighmaster, reports that he got along with the weighing even better than he expected. He is now satisfied that he can weigh as rapidly as the cattle can be gotten on and off the scales, and this is all that can be asked.

Following is a detailed report of the sales, with weights and prices, and names of buyers and sellers.

GRATES. GRATES.

Keep Your Houses Clean, AND SAVE FUEL.

BY USING THE

Wellman Patent Reflector

STOVE AND GRATE.

Which Stand Without a Rival.

The WELLMAN STOVE is furnished with the "REFLECTOR GRATE," and possesses all the advantages of an open fire place; it is specially adapted to houses where the flues are too small to admit a grate, and affords all the comforts of a CHEERFUL OPEN FIRE.

1st. As a radiator of heat it has double the intensity of any other grate.

2d. It is unquestionably the most cleanly—no soot or ashes escaping into the room—which, in the ordinary Grate, proves so detrimental to carpets and furniture.

3d. The combustion is perfect. There is no waste in unburnt cinders—every ounce of the fuel is so completely consumed, that nothing remains but the finest ashes.

4th. As an economizer of fuel—there being an actual saving of at least 25 per cent.

5th. It is highly ornamental.

6th. It is set so deep in the chimney, that it is much safer, and also less liable to puff in windy weather.

7th. A slight motion of the shaker cleanses the entire fire, and causes it to burn with great brilliancy and intensity of heat.

Samples may be seen and references had at the store of W. BARNES, corner of 3d avenue and Market street, Pittsburgh; W. F. GOODWIN, 66 Federal street, Allegheny, or at the FOUNDRY, corner Duquesne Way and Water street, Pittsburgh.

Parties who are building, or who contemplate changing Grates, are respectfully requested to examine "The Wellman." Satisfaction guaranteed in all cases.

HOME NEWS.

Workmen have commenced to put in new curbstones in front of the new City Hall.

Mayor Brush yesterday fined Peter Gormley five dollars and costs for abusing his (Peter's) wife.

Michael Cassidy was sent to the Work House for thirty days yesterday, by Justice Krebs, of Birmingham, for being drunk and disorderly on the streets.

There will be a special meeting of the East Birmingham Councils to-night to consider the supplement to the borough charter recently passed by the Legislature.

The card of A. J. Cochran, Esq., present City Treasurer, will be found among the announcements of candidates in this morning's paper. Mr. Cochran, during the present term of his office, has given satisfaction, we believe, to all, and is a gentleman well qualified to fill the office.

Wm. H. Clark, of North Fayette township, announces himself a candidate for Commissioner. He is an intelligent, energetic and very worthy citizen, who, if elected, will fill the office to the satisfaction of all. He expresses a decided wish to see the laws faithfully executed.

Letters retained for postage May 22.—Allen & Co., E. C. Augusta, Me., 3. Cassady, Francis, New Albany, Ind., 3. Dellbaugh, Alex., Wheeling, Va., 3. Pollock, S. Anna, North Star, Pa., 3. McCandless, Geo., Norristown, Mo., 3. Schiveyzer, Samuel, Olney, Ind., 1. Soldeerg, K., New York., 3.

Our friend Mr. William C. Friend so long known as Chief clerk in the Quarter Sessions Court, hands us his card for the office of County Controler. This important office requires just such a man as Mr. Friend, to fill it, for a successor to our worthy friend Mr. Lambert, there is no one we know of, could fill the office to the interests of the tax payers better than W. C. Friend.

John Patton & Bro., No. 7 Diamond, Allegheny, besides carrying on an extensive business in gas and steam fitting, plumbing, &c., are also the agents for the celebrated adamantine stove pottery, sewer pipe, chimney tops, flue pipes, ornamental gothic tile roofing, garden vases, &c. They are industrious and worthy young men, and deserve to succeed. Give them a call.

A Nuisance.—An information was made before Deputy Mayor Nicholls yesterday by C.T. Louer against Adam Stien for maintaining a nuisance. The parties live on adjoining lots and the prosecutor alleges that the waste water from the premises of the accused, which are higher than his, runs into his cellar and that he refuses to construct a drain to prevent the annoyance. A warrant has been issued.

False Pretences.—Information was made yesterday by A. C. Pentz, before Alderman Taylor, against Mrs. Olk, charging her with false pretence. Pentz alleges that Mrs. Olk obtained goods from him to the amount of twelve dollars, and that he had reason to believe that she made representations to him knowing them to be false and with intent to cheat him. The parties reside in the Twelfth ward. Warrant issued.

Surety of the Peace.—John Lablatt made oath before Esquire Heisel of East Birmingham, charging Michael Donnelly with surety of the peace. He alleges that Michael indulged in threats against his personal safety. He was arrested and while being taken to the lock-up, to which he had been committed, in default of bail, he assaulted the officer and very near by tore the coat off his back.

Striking a Child.—Mrs. Catherine Hoffman made oath before the Mayor, yesterday, charging Frederick Faering with assault and battery on her son, a small boy. It appears that as the accused was passing along the street he was struck by a stone thrown from a crowd of boys, and thinking that it was the son of the prosecutrix who threw it, he knocked him down. A warrant was issued for the arrest of Faering.

Larceny.—Oliver Davis made information yesterday before Alderman Taylor against Eliza Kelley, alias Lizzie Craig, alias Joanna Wilson, charging her with larceny. It appears that there was carried away from Davis' residence thirty-three dollars in money, a shawl valued at five dollars, eight yards of muslin, and some other articles, and the prosecutor had reason to believe that the woman with three names had been guilty of doing the carrying away.

Dr. C. Aug. Gregor, the noted Hernia Physician of New York, will be in our city about the 25th inst. His visit at this time is in the interest of a large number of patients he has in this city.

Any one afflicted with this terrible disease would do well to take advantage of this opportunity and have a talk with him, as he does not charge anything unless he takes hold of a case and cures it before he asks any pay for services rendered.

Pittsburgh Quintette Club.—A grand vocal concert will be given by this Club, at the First Methodist Church, Fifth avenue, this evening. Mr. G. M. Alexander is the director, and Mr. H. T. Knake the pianist of the occasion. The object for which the concert is given should induce an extraordinary attendance. The proceeds are intended for the benefit of young men studying for the ministry. The "laborers are few," therefore cast in your mite and assist those who are willing but unable.

Mr. Joseph Moffatt, a clerk employed in the jewelry store of Mr. W. W. Wattles, made oath before Mayor Brush yesterday morning against the two parties that entered the store on Saturday evening and stole a watch chain valued at $50. The man who was arrested gave his name as William Jones and that of his companion as Watson, both of which are supposed to be false. Watson has not yet been arrested. Jones at the hearing yesterday afternoon made a full confession, and was committed to jail for trial.

Capias Issued.—A capias was issued yesterday by Alderman McMasters for the arrest of Alexander McClurg, James Goldman, John Daubman, Nicholas Kinnen, Thomas Maloy, and a man named Link, charged on oath of Robert Aiken with trespass. Mr. Aiken, who is a property owner in Reserve township, charges that Mr. McClurg, also a property owner in the same locality, with the other defendants, his employees, entered upon his property and commenced to cut a road through it. A hearing will be had in the matter.

John C. Hubbs, Advertising Painter for Dr. H. T. Helmbold, the eminent New York medical chemist and author of popular proprietory medicines is in town. Mr. Hubbs visits every part of the United States, and writes the Helmbold advertisements on all places by the wayside. His industry and perseverance is amazing. When he has finished up this hemisphere he will probably be heard of in the other, inscribing the Doctor's Buchu and Grape Pills on the pyramids of Egypt, the Chinese wall, and the rocky coasts of Nova Zembla.

Among the many candidates for Assembly the name of Wm. N. Haymaker, of Patton township, should receive the attention of the delegates to the Republican Convention, to be held next month. Mr. Haymaker, it will be remembered, ran within a few votes on the first ballot, at the last convention, of being nominated, and withdrew so as to not interfere with another friend seeking the nomination. This locality of the county is entitled to a representative on the ticket, and no man could be selected that would give more general satisfaction to them than Mr. Haymaker, and if nominated is well qualified for the position.

Decoration Day.

There will be a meeting of the Executive Committee G. A. R. and the Marshalls appointed by the Committee, at the office of Maj. Montooth 69 Grant St., at 7:30 P. M., Wednesday evening, the 24th, inst. All associations, delegations from Manufactoring establishments, etc., contemplating turning out with the procession to dedicate the Soldiers' Monument, are requested to send representatives to this meeting, to assist in making the necessary arrangements.

We hope this meeting will be fully attended as the time for arranging matters is very short and every one should do all in their power to make this deserving project a success.

Lamentable Accident.

Coroner West yesterday at 4:30 P. M. received a telegram from Port Perry summoning him to hold an inquest on the body of an infant son of Dennis Nill. It appears that deceased was playing with his brother, a lad of scarcely ten summers, and that, by some fatality, they got hold of fire-arms. As always happens in cases of the kind, the weapon was loaded, and by some mischance, while being handled in sport by the elder boy it was discharged, the load passing into the body of the deceased. In view of the fact that these casualties are of almost daily occurrence throughout the country, it is passing strange that parents are not more on their guard in the safe-keeping of weapons.

Coroner's Budget.

It will be remembered that we gave the other day the details of the casualty at the southside end of the Suspension Bridge, by which Mr. Christian Gedegogh was thrown out of a wagon and severly, and as it has since proved, fatally injured. After consultation Sunday evening, it was decided by the attending physicians that it was necessary to amputate Mr. Gedegogh's leg. The operation was performed, and resulted in death at two o'clock, Monday morning. Coroner West later in the day held an inquest, and a verdict in accordance with the facts was rendered.

The same day Coroner West was called to hold an inquest on the remains of the boy John Shane, whose case was noticed in yesterday morning's paper. A verdict of accidental death was returned.

Unfortunate Blunder.

Yesterday's GAZETTE contained in the local columns a very unfortunate blunder made by the type setter, and one which we thus immediately make haste to correct. It was stated that at Economy, was found the body of a man supposed to be the Italian drunkard drowned off the Gipsey several days ago. Our reporter wrote plainly enough "Italian deck hand," but the provoking type made it read in a very uncharitable manner "Italian drunkard." The unfortunate gentleman, Mr. Flamino Gasole, who lost his life from the Gipsey, was an honest, sober and industrious citizen, and a prominent member in good standing of the Masonic order. He was never known to have been drunk and his death was purely accidental. We are very sorry that such a provoking blunder should have occurred, and apologize to his wife, family and friends, for its appearance through blunder and carelessness in these columns.

Sabbath School Convention.

The second Annual Convention of the Allegheny County Sabbath School Association will be held in the Cumberland Presbyterian Church, Sixth avenue, Pittsburgh, on Thursday and Friday, June 1st and 2d, commencing 2 o'clock Thursday.

The following well-known Sabbath School workers are expected to be present and address the Convention during its several sessions: Revs. Messrs. Sands, Taylor, Scovel, Laird, McKeever, King, Woodburn, Reid, Rowland, Mills, Kerr, Sluckenberg, Herr, Rev. Jno. Douglass, D. D., and Thos. Bakewell, Esq. An infant class lesson is to be taught by a lady. An opportunity for voluntary remarks will be given at the close of the stated addresses. It is expected that the Rev. Edw. Eagleston, D. D., will be present to take part in the exercises.

Let every friend of the Sabbath School make a sacrifice, if necessary, to be present the entire session.

Pastors and Superintendents will please give notice of this Convention.

"FUN."

The Whole Theory of "Making a Night of It"—The Delights of a Bar Room and the Whole Mystery of "Fun"—A Compounded Headache and an Enlarged Tongue.

Every one has sympathized in the mournful confession of Franklin, that he found that once upon a time he paid too dear for his whistle. This is an expression very often met in the lives of much humbler men. Those familiar with the early story of that great man remember that in his younger years he was a great vegetarian, and that he succeeded in persuading a great meat eater with whom he boarded to accept his theories on diet on condition that he (Franklin) would agree to return the compliment by receiving the meat eater's theories or dogma. The part was not long kept. A perspective of roast beef conjured up by the imagination of the famished meat eater scattered their mutual promises to the wind. The praises of pig constantly dinned into his ears by his friend proved too much for the philosopher, and their apostacy was celebrated over as fine a specimen of shote as Charles Lamb ever got poetical over.

Who that has lived through his teens but has had at various times held up before his eyes the delights of "making a night of it?" The fascination of the phrase is as potent as was ever vision of pig to Franklin, or to the involuntary epicure who, according to Lamb, first brought the dish into favor in China. The very words "making a night of it" have their influence. There is an offhand, dashing, manly piquancy about them. They have a free, clear ring, and are resonant of complete abandon. There are moments in the lives of all men when the willing voice of pleasure is irresistible. Solomon is accredited with the aphorism that there is a time for everything, and the only thing that can exclude a chapter from one's experience which realizes the phrase "making a night of it," is an early acquaintance with some devotee of Father Mathew, or an affiliation with some of those admirable institutions which are giving travail to our frenzied liquor men. This has not been the lot of all. Some of us belong to that happy consistory, and one of them who does not, for at least twenty-four hours after having "made a night of it," formed a very fervent resolution that he would on the first convenient occasion.

If you want to get the full flavor of "making a night of it," you should use a little judgment, and, by all means, don't neglect preparation. Every great enterprise deserves a little thought. The best time for the undertaking is, every thing else being equal, Saturday night. If you are a newspaper man, for instance, Saturday afternoon is your pay day, a great matter in an enterprise of the kind, and with that class who, whatever their virtues, are rarely forehanded. A good preparation is to go round a little Friday night. By the time Saturday night is fairly under way your nerves are then sufficiently unbraced to get the full flavor from the evening's enjoyment.

Then, in "making a night of it," a great thing is to have it settled with whom you are going to make it. From a limited experience, but a tolerably full observation, minstrels are a good sort of people for a novice to make his debut with.

The day and the person having been carefully determined, the plans are a mere secondary affair. All difficulties of that kind may be safely permitted to adjust themselves. The adjustment will take place easily and naturally.

It must not be supposed that the party assemble by set appointments. By no means. A casual meeting, say on the corner of Fifth avenue and Smithfield street initiates the enterprise. Soon a third person makes his appearance. The weather is a little sultry, and the party who had prepared himself by a little preliminary debauch Friday night feels thirsty. He recommends particularly a brand of Columbus beer which may be had farther down street. The dispenser of malt is soon discovered, and four or five glasses are quickly discussed. The drinking is enlivened by some light conversation, and an adjournment to the sidewalk is soon had. Now to "make a night out of it" pleasantly, and with full enjoyment of the after effects, you must mix your liquors. Consequently another resort is hunted up where spirits are dealt out, and four or five glasses of the "ardent" are soon under the belts of the party. They have now reached the "eloquent" stage. They have all found their tongues. Now comes an adjournment to a Diamond alley lunch house. Here of course you make it a point to call for the most indigestible things you can think of. Pickled pig's feet will do. It is an important thing in the programme that you should in everything consult the mirror, and pickled pig's feet will help to play the very mischief with your stomach. After washing down your little reflection with four or five glasses of beer, you consult your watch and find that it is time to go to "Trimbles." That is the correct thing to do. The man who starts out to "make a night of it" is mainly interested in physical antonomy. What he wants is the ballet, with a dash of nigger minstrelsy. He has pledged himself to take an exact inventory of the Kiralfry sisters, and to know to a dot what Arnoldi measures around the calf, if an intense inspection, quickened by beer and spirits can do it. Whenever the curtain falls of course an adjournment must be made to a neighboring bar-room. This enables you to keep up the stimulus, and imparts variety. You have of course engaged a private box, and a man whom nobody likes has invited himself to go with you. He is a professional and insists on giving you his critiques of the various portions of the entertainment. The man who prepared himself Friday night don't like him. He is at pains to let him overhear several remarks of that tenor. This makes things pleasant and originates a little by-play which promises nice developments further along. While the stage is being got ready for the after piece, an adjournment is had to an Irish cabaret on Irwin street. Whisky straight is the watch word lettered all over the house. The party by this time has become loquacious, and so much time is given up to discussion that by the time it got back to "Trimbles" the show is letting out. The wrath of the Friday man against the interloper now effervesces, and that gentleman not being on the muscle, makes himself scarce.

The next feature of making a night of it "is a devious wandering up and down, with periodic liquor specifics, until the party pulls up with the minstrels in a noted house. The "tapsters' arithmetic which could soon bring the particulars of Troilus's beard to a total "would be out in the reckoning of the interminable incecssion of beers and wines that come in at this stage. No discovered system of notation is equal to the operation. Finally an organization is effected in the back-room and the inevitable pickled pigs feet make their appearance. Beer, and still beer. The "wee sma' hours are well egant the twa," when two newspaper men take a fancy to reproduce the opening chapter of Pickwick. The episode was nicely calculated to spoil the jollity of the board, as the minstrels, Sunday to the contrary notwithstanding, were just about to sing. By their interposition a brawl was prevented, and after a long time spent in mediation and an immense amount of diplomacy it is discovered that everything that was said on either side had a Pickwickean qualification. The whole truth must out, and we are obliged to confess that the difficulty grew out of a proposal to play a game of seven-up and poker for segars. The vehemence disgusts the minstrels, and after a few glasses round an adjournment is had to their hotel. It being tolerably late—Sunday morning—the hotel authorities peremptorily refuse to give any liquor. There is nothing for it then but private enterprise, and it proves amply equal to the emergency. By some queer necromancy bottles make their appearance, and a further installment of "making a night of it" is guaranteed.

It was near three o'clock, and the minstrels had to leave at eight. They must have some sleep, and so after a cordial good-bye the two find themselves on the street again. It might surely now be in order to go to bed; but no. A stand is made before a leading drug store and one of the party improvises himself into physician and writes a prescription for a six ounce bottle of whisky. This is a repeated a number of times. A vain search is made for water—some friendly hydrant to qualify the fiery stuff, and finally the longed for article is found. As daylight is breaking by this time the party at last separate.

If the reader has given any attention to the detail of delights that went to this "making a night of it," he can't fail to recall the heterogeneousness that has been taken into the debauchies stomach. His pleasures now begin. Suppose him to live a little way out in the country, he makes at once for the spring of sweet wholesome water. He tries to drink and the pure fluid palls on him. He turns away in disgust. He seeks his couch after having received social salutations from the ladies of his family. He stammers out a glib lie about having been at the wake of some man who had died that night. He takes a glance at himself before seeking his couch and is astonished to see a grinning, contemptible idiot staring at him from the smooth glass. His complexion is a cross between a sickly green and a yellow pink. His eye is a study. The upper lid is pressed down over the ball, giving him an indescribably wilted and stupid appearance. He feels a swollen thing in his mouth, and with difficulty succeeds in protruding it, and sees a thing that reminds him that he had once opened the mouth of a cow, and looked at the curious rough flesh spikes with which she chews her cud. He sees the whole diagnosis of "fun" in his face and tongue. He throws himself on his bed and travels farther and faster, while reclining, without motion, than ever he did in his life before. And hasn't he a headache? He crowds within that ten hours more misery than a year of such "fun" could compensate for.

THE BRIBERY CASE.

Witnesses Protected by Law From Prosecution.

It is supposed by many persons that evidence cannot be obtained in the cases against the Commissioners charged with bribery, because the persons who paid money for licenses cannot be compelled to criminate themselves, and if they did testify to it, they would make themselves liable to prosecution. This is a mistake. The 49th section of the penal code specifically provides that no witness shall be excused from testifying in any criminal proceedings touching his knowledge of the crime of bribery of an officer, and "That the evidence so given, or the facts divulged by him shall not be used against him in any criminal prosecution."

Thus it will be seen that every man who has been required to pay money to get his license granted, is at perfect liberty to divulge this fact, and is protected by law in so doing. The crime consists in not divulging it. If it is found out in any other way than by his own voluntary explanation, he is liable to indictment, involving a fine of $500 and one year's imprisonment. Under this state of the law it is clearly the duty of every man who had to pay money illegally to get a license, to make the fact known to the proper authorities. By so doing he will relieve himself from the risk of serious consequences, and contribute to the ends of public justice. If there is corruption in the License Board it should be exposed, and thoroughly purged out.

QUADRENNIAL GATHERING.

Methodist General Conference — Fifth Day's Proceedings.

Conference opened with religious service, conducted by G. B. McElroy, of Adrian College.

Roll called, and the minutes read and approved.

J. Burns, from the Judiciary Committee, reported an item relative to the supervision of Annual Conferences over the appointment or transfer of pastors.

Alexander Clark, chairman of the Committee on a New Hymn Book, submitted a report of the work assigned.

On motion of J. Burns the hour of meeting was changed from 9 A. M. to 8:30 A. M.

B. R. Smith, from the Committee on Temperance, submitted a report, as follows:

WHEREAS, The misery, poverty and death caused by intemperance, the great and growing sin of our nation, should rouse the Church to more vigorous opposition to the accursed traffic in intoxicating drinks; therefore,

Resolved, That we re-affirm the teaching of Methodism on the iniquitous practice of indulgence in the use of alcoholic liquors; and that we recommend to our preachers everywhere to use whatever influence they have both in and out of the pulpit, to lessen and destroy this pest and curse of society, which is destroying our young men, and sapping the foundation of our Republic.

Resolved, That it is the duty of the entire membership of our Church to so identify themselves with all legitimate efforts put forth in this great and good cause, and to so labor for its success that our Church itself shall become what the great founder of our Common Methodism designed and labored for, one of the most efficient temperance organizations in the land.

J. H. Luce, from the Committee on Sunday Schools, submitted a report.

M. V. M. Evans, from the Committee on Memorials, submitted a report, in which various amendments to the Discipline were recommended.

J. Burns reported items in reference to persons uniting with the church having conscientious scruples on the ordinance of baptism. The recommendation was liberal and will come up for discussion.

J. H. Hamilton, from the Committee on Ministerial Education, reported. Among other items it recommended that no young man who uses tobacco be assisted by the Board.

J. Burns read a petition signed by various ministers not members of the General Conference, in reference to certain technicalities on the subject of baptism, and on the prospect of a catechism for the children and youths of the church. Referred to the Executive Committee.

George Brown submitted the following resolution, which, on motion, was referred:

WHEREAS, The members of the Methodist Church of the present day are very much in need of a proper understanding of our ecclesiastic economy, therefore be it

Resolved, By the General Conference that it shall be the duty of all the pastors in their several charges to read and expound to their several charges, as often as deemed necessary, the general rules and such parts of the Constitution as he may deem necessary to show the true character of our Church Government.

The above paper elicited considerable discussion. William Collier, A. Mahan, J. H. Flood, in the affirmative, and J. H. Robinson, J. Burns, T. Douglass, in the negative.

On motion, George Brown and William Collier were appointed to respond to the fraternal greetings of the messengers from the Methodist Episcopal Church, and C. Springer and A. H. Bassett to respond to the fraternal delegates from the Methodist Protestant Church.

A resolution of respect was passed by a standing vote to the memory of Mr. Purvis, of the Iowa District; O. P. Carlton, of the Missouri District; John Redman, of the Pittsburgh District, and Alanson Jones, of Nebraska District, all of whom have died since their election to this Conference.

J. B. Wilkin, of the Muskingum Conference, and J. W. Ellis, of the Ohio Conference, were introduced and invited to honorary seats.

On motion, adjourned.

Prayer by A. S. Elliott.

AFTERNOON SESSION.

Conference re-assembled at two o'clock and was opened by prayer.

The President announced that the order of the day would be observed, which was to hear the greetings of the fraternal messengers from the General Conferences of the Methodist Protestant church. This business occupied the whole of the afternoon session.

Quite a lively fight took place during the hearing of this case between the attorneys engaged. A remonstrance from the Third Ward School Board was presented.

Mr. Moore, for the applicant, claimed that the opposition to Mr. Bauer was political, and that the opposition came from the Republicans.

Major Slagle, acting for the School Board, refuted the statement of Mr. Moore, insisting that he did not know at the time the remonstrance was adopted by the Board what the politics of the applicant was, but that the objection by the Board of School Directors was made more particularly for the good of the school children. He disavowed anything political in his action.

The Extradited Ziegenmeyer.

The hero of the Gumbleton personation, and the supposed murderer of that unfortunate person, yesterday passed through our city in charge of officer Dixon on the way to Chicago. The circumstances of this case were so peculiar that they have been made the staple of much newspaper comment. Ziegenmeyer and Gumbleton had been intimates in Chicago, and the latter, who was possessed of considerable money and credit, was murdered. His personality was assumed by Ziegenmeyer, who disposed of his effects and cashed several checks drawn to Gumbleton's order. He immediately disappeared. The authorities at once came to the conclusion that Ziegenmeyer was the murderer and detectives were put on his track. He was traced to Germany, and, the proper formalities having been gone through with, was extradited. Ziegenmeyer claims that he parted with Gumbleton in a lager beer saloon on or about the evening of November 8th, and that, when Gumbleton failed to return to his lodgings, he availed himself of the opportunity to feather his nest. This, he asserts, was the head and front of his offending. The Chicago officials may possibly put a different face on the matter.

A Deserted Wife.

On Saturday afternoon a woman commenced smashing the windows of a saloon on Penn street, in the Twelfth ward, and, of course, created considerable excitement. It appears she had been deserted by her husband some time ago, yet managed to make a living for herself and her two children by taking in washing. The faithless husband had gone to live with another woman who had been deserted by her husband also, and the couple were making preparations to open a saloon. The first wife named, feeling that she could endure the desertion no longer, went to the residence of the couple on Saturday and demanded admission. This being refused she commenced smashing the windows of the saloon and demolished quite a number of panes. While engaged in her work of destruction she cut one hand quite severely. The woman wept for awhile and then returned home with her children apparently heart-broken.

A Lunatic on the Long-Bow.

George Rowley, for a lunatic, has a very creditable imagination. When arrested by Officers Cupples and Rivers yesterday he exhibited considerable talent in drawing the long-bow. He had just escaped from the Poor Farm and now reposes in the lock-up preparatory to pulling up at Dixmont. The manner of his escape was peculiar. He says that he armed himself with a large knife and started. He was opposed by six men, all of whom he knocked down, and then cut their heads off, one after another. The heads and bodies he piled in a big room, and placed all the beds and bed clothing on the piles, supplementing the whole with all the crockery on the premises, to keep the bodies from dancing and the heads from bouncing. One of the beheaded, the blacksmith of the premises, insisted on coming to town with George. After losing his head George would not consent to his coming unless he would replace his head. The blacksmith would not do this, and owing to this trifling disagreement George came alone.

IT WOULD BE interesting to know what is to become of those heaps of stone lying all along Central Avenue—beyond where the cobble stones cease. They have been there a long time, and they look as though they might lie there a long time yet. They take up a great deal of the road frighten shy horses and their evident destiny is to break the wheels and axles of buggies and the hoofs of horses driven along there on dark nights by unfamiliar drivers.

THE German Imperial Crown we hear so much about, and about to be worn by the Emperor William is a foot high, of twenty-one karat gold, and heavily set with pearls. The sceptre is of silver gilt, and two feet long. The globe carried in the hand is of the finest gold, three and seven-eighth inches in diameter, and encircled by two rings—one perpendicular and half covered with jewels, and the other horizontal and entirely crusted with gems. On the top is a cross which fairly blazes with precious stones. These insignes have long been kept in the Hofbourg at Vienna, and will be brought forth for Kaiser William's coronation.

A MEANER man than the one we noticed a few days ago, has turned up in New Hampshire. He is a physician and a man of wealth. His old mother, aged eighty-five, took sick, and she sent for her darling boy. He came and charged her his usual fee, taking the hard earnings of his poor mother, who knit stockings for a living. His mother died at last, and another brother though poor, was anxious to do honor to his mother, and had her decently buried. In settling up a few unpaid bills, he was called on by his rich brother and asked to pay three dollars for the hire of the horse that the rich brother drove to the funeral, and after paying the bill it turned out that the rich brother owned the horse himself. We wish we knew his name, as he is too mean to die, let alone be buried.

THE RANKIN ROBBERY.

Three Hundred Dollars Worth of Goods Carried off from the House-Furnishing Store of J. H. Rankin—No Information yet Made.

Sunday night was selected as the time and Sixth street, late St. Clair, as the place for a bold, highly adroit and successful robbery. Between eleven and twelve o'clock the house-furnishing goods and hardware warehouse of J. H. Rankin was burglarized and a large booty was carried off, comprising a portion of his most valuable stock. The modus operandi was simple. There is a small alley in the rear of the store used as an exit from that portion of the establishment. Opening on the alley is a window some fifteen feet above the ground, the glass of which measures some nine or ten inches. The indications are that the depredators had with them a young lad, and that an entrance was effected through one of the lights of this window. With the assistance of a hatchet or some other convenient implement, the fastenings were quickly wrenched and his confederate admitted. Havoc was at once made in the stock. Twenty-eight or thirty dozen knives and forks were taken from the most select article of the kind within reach. Special regard was had as to quality. The thieving gentry seemed determined to leave a favorable impression of their good taste. Napkin rings, butter knives, revolvers and other makes of pistols were next in order and were liberally drawn from. A lot of fine imported pocket cutlery was next favored. The little change, amounting to about two dollars which had been left in the money drawer, was then seized. The total of Mr. Rankin's losses are estimated to amount to three hundred dollars.

Up to eight last evening no information had been filled out at the Mayor's office, and the authorities there are utterly without clue to the robbers.

A HEARTLESS HUSBAND.

Cruelty to a Sick Wife—Six Weeks Without Medical Attendance.

The attention of officers Early and Patterson was yesterday called to a most pitiable and repulsive case of cruelty to a sick wife by a German rag picker residing on Miner street, in the Thirteenth ward. They visited the house and found that the woman had been lying dangerously sick for the past five or six weeks, unable almost to move, much less to help herself, and through the parsimony or heartlessness of her husband, had during all that time received neither medical nor other suitable attention. The bed upon which she was lying was made up of dirty and filthy rags, which had been picked up from gutters and ash heaps; her only covering an old bag, which was so stiff from the accumulated filth of years, perhaps, as to resemble a board more than a textile fabric. When it is added that the poor woman had not once been out of bed during the time stated, her condition can be better imagined than described. This model husband was arrested and brought before the Mayor, but he, the offence not being known to the municipal code, referred the case to the Board of Health, that they might take cognizance of the disease-engendering filth maintained in the house.

Joseph Horne & Co.

It always gives us pleasure to be able to record the success of any of our citizen's undertakings, and particularly so, when the person or firm is so eminently worthy of the praise of our pen, as the one whose name stands at the head of this notice. Since their removal from their old store on Market street and taken up their position in the magnificent rooms in the Library building, on Penn street, we are glad to state, that their sales have very largely increased; their old customers, not only following them, but new ones are giving them the benefit of their custom daily. Some persons profess to believe that the location of a store is everything towards its success, but in this instance the above firm have disproved this idea and fully established the better one, that success depends on the character of the house, more than its location; on the quality of its fabrics, and the attention of its proprietors and salesmen more than on gilded signs, erected to please the eye of the pedestrian. Messrs. Horne & Co., have long enjoyed a reputation in this community for offering for sale one of the largest and freshest stocks of goods to be found any where, and their prices are at the same time as low, if not lower than any similar house in the city. The extensive business done, amounting, as is well known, to over a million dollars annually enables them not only to keep their stock well replenished by fresh invoices, but at the same time to sell on a very small margin of profit. The ladies of this vicinity need not be told this, but for the benefit of the strangers and others coming here to make their purchases of bonnets, hats, laces, ribbons, notions, flowers, hosiery, trimmings and the thousand and one articles kept in a first class trimming store, we advise them, one and all, to give Messrs. Joseph Horne & Co., a call, satisfied that they will be pleased with all they see and buy.

Lucas Dead.

Edward Lucas, a colored man who achieved some notoriety as a skillful cattle thief, and who was serving out a sentence in the Western Penitentiary was interred yesterday in the Uniondale cemetery. He died from pneumonia contracted while hiding in a damp coal-pit after his escape from that institution some time ago. Lucas discovered an admirable talent both as a trader in other people's cattle and as a jail breaker. Readers of newspapers will probably recollect that his escape was managed with great ingenuity. He had complained of being unwell, and, at the suggestion of Dr. Rankin, the kindhearted physician of the Penitentiary, he was detailed to whitewash the outer walls. He knew a trick worth two of that, it seemed, and got himself very cleverly out of jail bounds. He received the kindest attention at the hands of Dr. Rankin on his return, and died in the Penitentiary Hospital about eight o'clock Sunday evening. The usual practice of burying convicts in the prison yard was, with great good sense and feeling, dispensed with.

Amusements.

PITTSBURGH OPERA HOUSE.—This house was tolerably well filled last night, by a respectable and appreciative audience, the occasion being the first representation of Mademoiselle Marietta Ravel's "Jartine." The play was well put upon the stage, well acted and received with frequent manifestations of pleasure by the audience. It will be repeated to-night.

TIMBLES VARIETIES.—This house was, as usual, crowded last night and the new stars made a decided hit. The singing, dancing and other specialties were fully up to anything hitherto presented by Mr. Aims, and saying this we say about as much as possible, for the fact has been potent to all patrons of the establishment, that Mr. Aims' "show" has been fully equal to any similar entertainment in the country. A fine bill is offered for to-night.

THE CIRCUS AND MENAGERIE.—Forepaugh's unrivalled and unequalled circus and menagerie will open at the Union Park, Allegheny City, on Thursday. If the encomiums of the press of cities where this combination has exhibited are to be believed, this is one of, if not the finest shows that has ever visited our city. It will open on Thursday, and remain till Saturday, giving two exhibitions daily.

LIBRARY HALL.—The visitor at Library Hall last night was amazed at being enveloped in almost Cimmerian darkness. In all the vast and spacious hall no gas spurted from brilliant chandelier to light the eye in its progress over the beauty and fashion which crowded the hall. And yet an audience unusually large and quite distinguished gave a pleased attention to the wonders wrought from photographs by Cromwell's Cosmoscope. Travel had doubtless prepared many of those present for an appreciative attention to the wonders of ancient and modern art reproduced on a vastly extended scale, and the untraveled were conversant in some degree, at least, with the persons and scenes that for hundreds of years have formed the burden of story and song. While the mere counterfeit presentments, whose effects were very skillfully aided by delicately managed shades of colored light, were not, of course, high art, they were in a very high degree artistic, and happy in raising very agreeable impressions of the many lovely things in nature and art represented.

The range of subjects comprehended by the entertainment is alone illimitable. The eclectic element in the audience was called upon to enjoy very creditable adumbras, at least, of all that is famous in architecture, statuary and natural scenery. The readers of Ruskin had here dwarfed but satisfying images of all that richness of architectural beauty, which his pen alone is graphic enough to portray in words. Almost every beauty and triumph of art and skill in either Pagan or Christian Italy were passed in succession to the gaze of an audience called from a people where art is as yet almost in embryo. The gorgeous Cathedral of Milan, St. Peters, the leaning tower of Pisa, and unnumbered of curiosities of architecture, running through every range of Gothic and Moorish art were seen in endless progression. Those who remembered Claude Melnotte's strained description of the beauties of Como had before them realization of its charms, which relieved the lover's harangue from its extravagance. Venice, with its lagunes, its Ducal palace guarded by the lion of St. Mark, its Rialto and Bridge of Sighs was rendered with an accompaniment, not characterized by special grace or energy of recitation of passages from the poems of Lord Byron. A phase of the entertainment which gave special pleasure, was the reproduction of many of the most celebrated works of the sculptors of all time. The Laocoon glared on the spectator in rigid agony. The heroine of Bulwer's "Last Days of Pompeii" was outlined in loveliness. After having taken us through all lands, Mr. Cromwell very sensibly brought his audience nearer home, and reproduced from Long Branch and Washington scenes with which a large proportion of the audience were familiar; and towards the end of his entertainment, gave us the familiar faces of several of our own noted citizens.

Cromwell's Cosmoscope is deserving of unqualified praise and liberal recognition. This we are glad that it received last night, and we have no doubt such will be the uniform experience of the venture in Pittsburgh. We would remark, en passant, that the hall was intolerably warm and if the gentlemen who have the ventilation of Library Hall in charge would do well to ameliorate this feature.

Pianos and Organs

Are still being sold at S. Hamilton & Co.'s at the same rapid rate that has heretofore caused such surprise among many who are familiar with the music trade; but the reason is obvious when it is known that their business is exclusively pianos and organs, in which they always have such a large and well selected stock, that people rarely ever come away without buying either piano or organ from them, because in addition to the undisputed fact, that they can and do sell lower than any other house in the city, is the well known honesty and integrity of the proprietors, who have been known among us all their lives, and whose long experience in the piano and organ business, certainly qualifies them to know where and what to buy. They have therefore adopted the rule to sell nothing they cannot guarantee, which will certainly prove most profitable in the end, as they are comparatively young men; and to associate their names and reputation with an inferior article now, would be ruinous to their business prospects for the future; and to assure our readers of the correctness of our remarks, we have only to say that they are sole agents for such instruments as the old standard Taylor & Farley Organs, which for power, purity and variety of tone, are unequalled by any Reed Organ made, and the Decker & Barnes' new Patent Pin Block Piano, Cramer & Co. and Bradford & Co. Piano, any of which will be sold at the same low rates and on terms to suit purchasers, old instruments taken in exchange for new ones, and every instrument is fully warranted. Special rates to churches and Sabbath Schools. So our advice to all in need of instruments, is be sure and call on or address

A Military Farce.

With a sound of loud trumpets, and a dash of drum sticks, it was announced a short time ago that the newly elected Brigadier General of the Second Brigade, 18th Military Division, John McLanahan, was to be tried by court martial for "conduct unbecoming an officer and gentleman" during the brief bit of a campaign preceding his election. The general impression was that the charges were clap-trap, the serious offence being based on certain words alleged to have been used in a political way, by the young Brigadier. Well, last evening was fixed for the grave trial. Our reporter was on the ground promptly, hoping to gain an elaborate report of the testimony, but he was greatly disappointed. Of the Military Court, out of the nine members who constitute it, only two put in an appearance, together with the accuser, who was not attended by any witnesses. Gen. McLanahan, through his counsel, Gen. J. B. Sweitzer, and Samuel Schoyer, Esq., demanded a trial, but no trial could be obtained in "absence of the Court." General Rowley, President of the Board, announced the case postponed till this evening at eight o'clock. He said he would notify all the officers constituting the Court to be on hand at that time. General McLanahan, through his counsel, signified his entire willingness to delay the proceedings, but declared that if the Court be not properly framed and constituted this evening, he would appeal his case to Governor Geary through Maj. Gen. Pearson. Thus ends the second chapter in this military farce that has so seriously damaged our military friends in the estimation of outsiders. We imagine the case will collapse entirely to-night, and that good will and harmony will rule once more in the ranks after its wind up.

AN OUTRAGE.

Stones Thrown Through the Third Church Window During Service.

On Sunday evening while the Rev. Mr. Carnahan, of Bellfield, Fourteenth ward, was engaged in delivering a sermon in the Third Presbyterian church, on Sixth avenue, some evil disposed person or persons threw two stones in rapid succession through one of the windows on the upper, or Grant street, side of the church, one of them striking a gentleman, a member of the congregation, on the head, inflicting a slight injury. Some gentlemen connected with the church hurried out immediately, but could not find the vagabonds who perpetrated the outrage.

A liberal reward has been offered by the trustees for the arrest and conviction of the party or parties who committed the offence.

Alleged Meat Poisoning Case.

Mr. Christian Borner, the Butcher whose name has been coupled with the death of Mr. Schwarm's daughter, enters an energetic protest against the truth of statements which have gone the rounds of the city press. He asserts that the veal sold by him to the Schwarms was in a perfectly wholesome condition and that its sale was not confined to the Schwarm family, and that consequently complaint would have been heard from other quarters if the allegations made had been true. The statement that the meat had been examined by Meat Inspector Lindsay, Mr. Borner says, is untrue. He cheerfully courts an investigation. If Mr. Borner's story is substantiated the death of the Schwarm child must be explained on some new hypothesis.

Important Naval Case—Information Against the Propeller R. T. Hackett of Erie.

District Attorney Swoope yesterday received the papers relating to an information made against the lake propeller, R. T. Hackett, engaged in the lake commerce between Escawaba and Erie. It is charged that some of the owners of the boat are not citizens of the United States. The Act of Congress of 18th of February, 1793, forbids, under penalty of forfeiture, the transfer of any part of a licensed vessel to a person not a citizen or resident of the United States, &c. The question involved affects all the vessels of the same line, and a decision adverse to this vessel will result in the forfeiture of some $200,000 worth of property.

Couldn't Die in Peace.

Death is a sufficiently trying ordeal under any circumstances, but the dying experiences of a man at the Point yesterday were peculiar. Deceased breathed his last in a house which adjoins that of Robert Doran, who, it is alleged, is of a convivial turn, and had selected that occasion for a merry-making. The dead man's friends were naturally incensed at the uproar and made an information against Doran for disorderly conduct. The offender was multched in five dollars and costs.

Murder and Arson.

The New Orleans Times says: At twelve o'clock on the night of the 10th instant, Mr. Frank Menteath, a clerk employed in the store of Mr. Chopin, on Mrs. R D. Welham's Homestead plantation, two miles below College Point, in the parish of St James, was murdered by unknown miscreants, and the store was burned to the ground. Two special officers, at the request of the relatives of the deceased, visited the scene and returned to the city last evening. They have gained sufficient information to enable them to trace up the murderers, but as there have as yet been no arrests, we omit, for obvious reasons, the particulars of the discovery. Nothing unusual had transpired on the day previous to the murder.

Mr. Menteath, in the morning, sent one hundred dollars to Mr. Chopin, to be remitted to the city, and paid one hundred dollars taxes. He was seen about as usual during the entire day, and at ten o'clock in the evening the overseer of the plantation called in and remained a short time. At twelve o'clock the place was discovered to be in flames, the fire bursting out through the front. The steamer Flicker, which was passing at the time, rang the alarm, and the neighborhood was at once aroused. The building was consumed, and after the first confusion was over Mr. Menteath could not be found.

When an investigation was made, it was discovered that no one had seen him during the progress of the fire. Thirty-eight dollars in gold and two silver watches were found under his bed, and the waistband of the trowsers he wore the night before were discovered a short distance from the ruins. It is believed that just before the fire a party called at the store, and that while Mr. Menteath was getting over the counter to let them in, he was struck with a blunt instrument and either stunned or killed. His body, it is thought, was then thrown into the river, and the place fired to prevent suspicion. A reward of five hundred dollars is offered for the apprehension of the murderers, and, as before stated, it is thought all will be apprehended. The property is insured for fifteen thousand dollars, but the loss will exceed this a thousand dollars at least.

Ku-Klux.

The Atlanta Sun tells the following story about one of Georgia's Superior Court Judges, who is not remarkable for his good looks: It seems that a man was indicted and put upon trial before the judge, upon the charge of playing Ku-Klux. One of the principal witnesses was a negro man. In the course of the examination a question was asked which this witness declined to answer. The judge was appealed to to compel an answer. The day was a pretty cold one, and the judge was well muffled up in his shawl, and had escaped the eye of the Cushite. In leaning forward to order the witness to answer the question, the negro caught sight of him, and no sooner had he done so than he exclaimed, "By golly, dere's a Ku-Klux now!" and at one bound he cleared the bar, and in a moment more he was out of the court house, and running as if all the Ku-Klux Klan were at his heels. The negro is still of the opinion that a member of the Klan was on the bench that day.

Oil News.

PARKER'S.—A new well on the Robinson farm, adjoining the Dutchess, commenced pumping Friday evening; by Saturday morning the water was partially exhausted, and the show for oil an excellent one, some three or four barrels having been produced already. This well was purchased a few days since by Messrs. Germar, Harop, Tupper and Shakely for $12,500 before any oil had been reached.

The Truby well, on the Dutchess farm, is nearly completed. It is being drilled dry, and there is already considerable oil in the hole.

Operations on the Dutchess farm, and the Robinson, George Parker and Black farms, the former of which is surrounded on three sides by the Dutchess, and the two latter adjoin the Dutchess on the southwest. In this connection we note the following sale, which indicates the value that is placed upon territory in this vicinity. One undivided half interest in the Black farm (67 acres) adjoining the Dutchess, to Hon. Wm. Bigler, and Phillips Bros., by Messrs Karns, KcKinney & Nesbitt for $21,000. This is the property that the Northwestern Independent has had so much to say about of late, in regard to a lease that was given by Mr. Black, its former owner; we are now enabled to state on good authority that the title to it has been cleared of any and all incumbrance, and we shall soon hear good news from it as a producing territory, for the present enterprising owners will proceed at once with its development.

We hear that one lease has been taken at three-eights royalty, on which a well will be drilled at once, and that numerous applications are on file for more on the same terms.

On the Campbell Farm, south of Bear Creek, a well, owned by Campbell, Angell, Lambing and others, struck the sand Friday and immediately filled with oil, within about 140 feet of the top. An excellent show for a good well.

Several others are in progress in the immediate vicinity, and will strike the sand in few days.
